General Information:

Please help us all to make this an event worthy of song by volunteering. Help is always needed, really appreciated, and represents the very backbone of our Society. We would appreciate volunteers for Gate, Constabulary, and Water Bearing. Please inquire at Gate, with the Autocrat, or at Constable's Point.

Pets: All pets must be kept on a leash at all times (maximum 6' long) and be under your physical control at all times. Clean up pet wastes and dispose of wastes into the garbage.

Fires and Open Flame: Subject to Fire Marshall regulations. Fires and open flame must be 12" or more above ground and may not be left unattended. Unattended fires will be extinguished when found. A bucket of water or a fire extinguisher must be at hand.

Public Presence: we will occasionally have "moderns" walking through the site so please treat them with courtesy and kindness. We share this and other parks with them and should endeavor to astound them with our kind, gentle ways so as to ensure continued use of the park in the future should we desire to use it.

Unloading: Vehicles will be allowed on the grass to UNLOAD / LOAD ONLY! Please move your vehicle to the parking area before setting up your encampment.

Parking: Please unload your vehicle to your site and then move your vehicle, as quickly as possible, to the approved parking area before starting to set up your camp. Overnight, or long-term parking onsite is not allowed unless handicapped and by permission from Autocrat only. Royalty and some staff excluded for obvious reasons.

Please be sure to display your "Dragon Pass" on your dashboard, which will be given to you at the Gate when checking in, and paying site fees.

Constables Point/Lost and Found will be clearly marked and is a big, off-yellow, period looking pavilion located along the main event path/road.

---Contests and Classes---

Classes: See website for class information

Best Garbed Pet Competition is becoming a hit and this year features Armor. Suit up your pet for war and proudly display that bold armor for most excellent prizes.

Have fun competing in the cooking contest, which this year is Stewpot Fowl! What does an army on the march eat? How is it to be cooked? Where did they get the fowl? Bring your choice of fowl, not foul, and add our mystery ingredient to make a First Place meal! Prizes will be awarded!

The Siege Camp Design contest pits House against House, noble against noble. Who's camp is the easiest to defend? Who's camp looks the most resplendent with banners waving proudly and shields displayed? Prizes of fine booty will be awarded to those judged having the best Siege Camp.

For the small's this year, we are putting together a;  Scottish Highland Games competition! Open to all children, with age bracketing to keep things fair, it will feature separate competitions between girls and boys in multiple categories with the prizes to be presented in Court to the overall winners of each category.

Autumn event / Crimson Sky:

Not a lot has happened yet with Crimson Sky. We have confirmed the park, and due to their busy schedule this time of year the walk through will not be until August 13th. I have submitted crier copy and it will be published in the August issue of the Crier, the event is also posted on the Kingdom website as well as our own. We did manage to get the two months prior to the event at no charge. We have begun collecting prizes for the tourney and I have brought an example of the t-shirts that will be given to the fighters and or sold to the populace. The shirts are running about $4.00 a piece; this includes set up fees, delivery, etc. The price will go down with greater numbers, as of now I am looking at around 80 shirts. With some finagling I believe I can still do all of this on our approved budget, but will make no commitments without council approval. Our first autocrats meeting will be held at Trygvees War. Things will move rather quickly after Trygvees War so I expect a long report next month. In service, Lynnarra.

New Business:

- A motion was made by Alaine de Lacy to rent a Biff for the practice site for the summer. All in favor. None apposed.
- Lynnarra stated her intent to run for Seneschal position.

Meeting closed at 9pm.

Respectfully Submitted by Lady Amblynn MacTalis
