Announcements

Seneschal

Greetings Terra Pomaria,

I want to thank all of the people who have helped with the polling process and thank all of the candidates who stepped forward to serve the Barony. Good luck to all of you. Her Excellency Nedezda will be mailing out the forms on Tuesday the 20th. Please remember to fill them out in their entirety and return them to his majesty. Polling forms must be postmarked by April 1st.

It is time for quarterly reports again. Please submit your quarterly reports to me by April 1st, email is fine. Officers please remember to send your reports on to you principality and kingdom superiors. As I was reminded and asked to pass on from summits moot, No officer should have "nothing to report". There is always something going on in the Barony, be sure you tell them about it.

We still have some open offices! If you or anyone you know is interested in becoming an officer please feel free to contact the officer in question or myself and we can fill you in on the details. Holding an office is a great way to serve your Barony and vital to our continued success.

I would like to remind everyone once again to please follow the grievance procedure if you have a problem with an individual or a group. The process begins with talking directly to the person or persons you have a problem with. If you would like any clarification on the grievance procedure please contact me and I would be happy to go over it with you.

I will be unavailable until April 1st unless it is an emergency, so please don't be offended if phone calls and emails are not returned.

In Service,

HL Lynnarra

Meeting and Greeting at Spring Coronet,

On Saturday at the event, my Lady and I had to make a quick store run and used HL Elspeth of Glen Denning's dragon to take us to and fro. When we returned with the dragon, flying our store bought booty directly to camp; we found our way on the road blocked by two adults, Ladies both, and three children.

I immediately recognized the two Ladies as having been at Stinky War last year, and the one gal I remembered meeting at the "Shari's" restaurant in Lebanon. So I hopped out of the dragon and went to speak with them, to say hi #1, and to move them off the road #2.

Let me tell you what happened. They got curious last year about the SCA. My Lady Daire and I had spoken at length to those ladies both in town and at Stinky War, explaining to them as best we may about the SCA. They liked it sooo much they wanted to come back. They didn't realize the difference between a demo event and a regular event and were very "miffed" that the Gate folks wanted to charge them admittance last Saturday.

I explained it all to them right then and there to the amusement of the Gate folk and they said, "Well, we brought the kids this time and just wanted to show them around but we don't have the money to pay the fee so I guess we will just take the kids to the park." I said, "Whoa now, hang on." I whipped out the wallet, chucked the $26.00 dollars on the Gate table and talked them into not only signing the waivers and such but donning "Gold Key" on as well. Once they were dressed we took them to the "Trails End Inn" and sat them down. We explained a bit about what was going on, invited them to stay for our potluck dinner that night and turned them loose.

After a while the folks returned to our encampment and we talked for a while about what they had just seen and the SCA in general. The kids started to get bored needless to say and that is when the "Pirates" on site stepped in. The pirate captain and his officers immediately went about setting up a treasure hunt for the three children. They enlisted help from merchants and others, planted clues, and then explained the plan to me. I acted as the "MC" if you will. I sat the children down and explained the treasure hunt plan to them while my Lady Daire went to seek Roland and Emma as we wanted permission to use their two fine children; "Cassandra and Maximillian", as guides and assistants to our three modern children.

Roland and Emma graciously lent us their fine children, who by the way were perfect in the role, when my lady returned to our camp with in tow the treasure hunt began. It kept the children amused for hours. They had some difficulties, it took a while, and after it was all done they walked away with a bag of gold chocolate coins. Enough to provide a stomach ache for all three children!

I would like to personally thank all who were involved in this and most especially the pirates who donated their time and their gold;
"Lord Vonyev Petzina", "Harle Peregrines", "The Turkish Coffee" merchant, and "Peregrines Pasar Yeri"

Please forgive me if I have misspelled your names, the writing on the card you left me for this purpose is very hard for me to read....I have tried my best here.

So is closing, this is an excellent true story about the fine citizens in our Realm and the wonderful giving natures they have. This is one example of how you "recruit" new bodies for this wonderful dream we play.

Three cheers for them all! Hip, Hip, Huzzah! Hip, Hip, Huzzah! Hip, Hip, Huzzah!
