Barony Of Terra Pomaria

October 2007

Baron and Baroness:

Greetings unto the populace of the Grand Barony of Terra Pomaria,

As the dust of the war field settles, and the tourney field grows silent, the bright explosion of the turning autumn leaves herald the coming winter. Terra Pomaria brings in the crops and the harvest that will sustain us throughout the cold winter. The Baron and Baroness commend the populace of Terra Pomaria for an outstanding tournament season.

We thank all of you for the courtesy and hospitality that you have extended to all of the visitors to our lands. You have represented the barony well to Crown, Coronet, and various visiting Baronets. All that have visited have commented to us how they have enjoyed themselves here.

As the days grow shorter and the nights grow longer and colder we find that it will be necessary to draw closer to each other and share the warmth of our hearth fires. We have many opportunities this fall and winter to come together to share glorious stories of our travels and adventures this tourney season past. We have much time to work on our projects in preparation for the next tourney season.

We have our first Ceilidh of the season on October 8, 2007. This is a time of fellowship and activities to help bind our community together and to welcome newcomers. This brings to mind a concern that we have as your Baron and Baroness. The populace of our barony has always fluctuated between large and small numbers of members and participants. However, we are in a time where the numbers of active participants have dwindled to a solid but rather small core, many of the officers have held several of the offices necessary to maintain the barony, and some have held several of the offices multiple times. This is why we are calling upon the entire populace to help grow our barony. The fall season has begun and it is the time of harvest, let's harvest the fields and bring in new people that we can show what the SCA has to offer. The fun and excitement of the dream we all share. So to encourage this we will be offering a prize at each Ceilidh to the person that brings a new comer, and then the person that brings the most new comers between the first and last Ceilidh will be awarded a prize befitting this noble task.

Also, we have decided to reinstate an Open castle, to take place at our home once a month. The first will be October 25th at 7:00-9:00pm. This will be an informal time where the populace can come to socialize, work on projects, discuss with the baron and baroness and others ideas and concerns regarding the barony, and just enjoy each other's company. We will potluck each evening, so you would bring something to share and a drink of your choice. It will also be a good place for newcomers to learn what the SCA is and what opportunities there are for them to become involved.

We would like to encourage people to begin thinking about the possibility of putting together a large-scale public demo in the Salem area in the early spring. What we envision is that the planning for this will take place throughout the winter and that we will develop not a single autocrat but a demo team with a supervising autocrat to be the lead point of contact and head cat wrangler. Our vision is that the demo team will be a joint effort between the surrounding branches reaching as far north as Stromgard and south to Glynn Dwyfn. Imagine the impact that this would have on the SCA in the local area to show the Kingdom's best and brightest in a forum that will attract a large number of people. Let's show the pageantry and spectacle that will draw new members to the SCA.

Yours in service,

*Sir Roland & Her Excellency Emma von Bern
Baron and Baroness of Terra Pomaria*

Seneschal:

Greetings unto Their Excellencies and the Populace of Terra Pomaria!

I would like to thank all of those who helped with Long and Short and with Summits Fall Coronet. Both events were a great success and could not have been done without the support from the populace. Thank you.

This has been a busy but wonderful summer. We have seen a lot of changes in the Kingdom and Principality. One such change has been the dissolution of the Office of Constabulary. The official announcement was made at Curia at September Crown. Her Excellency Vis. Nadezhda is currently writing guidelines for a new office that will take the place of the constabulary. It will most likely be along the lines of fire watch. This is expected to be completed by crown council with January being the implementation date. As further details are announced I will let you know. In the mean time, I would like to thank HL Arkil for his years of service and all others for their support of the office.

I have created a couple of new forms for the officers of Terra Pomaria. There is an Officer Report form and an Autocrat report form. These forms are required to be filled out and submitted as part of your office. I have completed officer job descriptions and expectations which will be read at the next business meeting and handed out. If you do not receive these please let me know. Both forms are designed to assist the officers in not only knowing what kind of things to report, but will assist each officer in writing their quarterly report. Thank you in advance for completing and turning in your forms each month.

The winter will hold many things for us as a barony. Celidh will begin again in October, look for many classes in the coming months, scribal night will continue and I plan to have a project night a few times throughout the winter. There are also many feasts and revels that occur throughout the winter. Please support our brothers and sisters in the Summits by attending these events. I want to thank everyone who has served the barony over this tourney season and I encourage you to continue to serve and play throughout the winter.

Future Events

A Knight in the Carpathians and

Three Mountains Baronial

Arts and Sciences Championship!

Saturday, 3 November 2007

The shadows lay long and deep along this lonely and remote mountain crossing in the eastern Carpathian Mountains. The winds pick up. Flashes of lightning assault the dark. Thunderclaps torture the mountaintops. And rains soak you to the bone. The horses pulling your coach seem ready to bolt in mad terror as they shiver and Winnie nervously. Just when all hope of shelter seems vain, an inn appears out of nowhere—it's not even on your map. The swinging shingle above the arched entry reads: The Red Spike Inn. You knock on the oddly-shaped heavy wooden door—a coffin lid? The door opens with a slow creak and you find yourself greeted by Vostroi the innkeeper. It is good to get out of the wind and rain and the Inn is warm and inviting, with a table in the middle of the room set with a variety of inviting dishes of food that appear freshly prepared, as if you were expected. The innkeeper says, "Please come in. Sample the zakuski. Warm yourself by the fire. I'll have Igor put your horses in the stable and prepare you a room for the night. Unfortunately, the bridge ahead has just been...washed away. A slide has also barred your passage back. You might as well stay the night and make yourself comfortable if you can." You wonder to yourself how he knew the road conditions and what he meant by "...if you can." You let the thought pass, shrugging your shoulders and taking a bite of the zakuski. It is comforting to pass the time chatting with friends and the fabulous strangers you meet at the Inn, who have also found shelter from the storm, and together you partake of various games of chance and skill by the bright central fire.

Murder Mystery: Sometime during the evening you may find yourself caught up in a strange and dark mystery of blood curdling proportions and you wonder if you will survive the night.

The Barony of Three Mountains will also be holding its Arts & Science Championship during this event. (see below)

Murder Mystery and Arts and Sciences Championship (what a combination, eh?):

During the murder mystery evening, Three Mountains will also be seeking its next Arts and Sciences Champion. Come, show your prowess in the arts and sciences and vie for the title. Requirements: Three entries of any type, either art or science, and appropriate documentation. Entries will be judged on documentation, workmanship/craftsmanship, and design/aesthetics. Remember, this is a local competition, so the documentation doesn't have to be extreme. Please see the judging form on the Three Mountains website for details on what the judges will be looking for. Notification of your intent to compete must be given by Sunday, September 30, 2007 so we have plenty of time to line up judges for you. Notification can be verbal or in e-mail or other written format and should be given either to Their Excellencies, the current Champion Andrew Stuibhard, or the A&S Minister, Giana Visconti. (Contact information below.) You will need to present a letter of intent during Court, at the event, in addition to this notification. Contact Information: Their Excellencies Alfric and Jill at “alfricandjill@comcast.net”, Lord Andrew Stiubhard, A&S Champion at “lyoncoeur@yahoo.co, and HL Giana Visconti, Minister of Arts and Sciences, at “GianaVisconti@comcast.net”

Pot-Luck: (In keeping with the style of the event and the A&S Championship) zakuski is Russian for hors d'oeuvres and the Autocrat, Vostroi, has recipes to assign to those who wish to participate (i.e. eat). In an effort to create an authentic experience the autocrat is requesting only period/event appropriate snack food and he has recipes available. So if you wish to dine at the event and be a part of the potluck, contact the autocrat for your assigned zakuski dish. Please write or call the Autocrat, Vostroi, (Sean Hinckley) to obtain a recipe: vostroi@gmail.com or 503-247-3504 or send a note to him at 5925 N. Gay Ave., Portland, OR 97217 no later than October 20th. IF you care to do your own research you are welcome to bring a period zakuski dish based on a recipe of your own but please notify the Autocrat so he can log your participation. (Those doing their own research will be asked for documentation.) All the pot-luck zakuski dishes will be judged by all the other participants, based on authenticity, presentation, and taste. Baron Master Vostroi will present a prize to the people's choice based on those three criteria. This is a dry site and all suitable beverages are BYOB in period containers only. Please respect the hard work that the cooks contributing to the pot-luck have put forth; if you do not have the time or inclination to participate in the period zakuski pot-luck, be sure to make other dining arrangements for you and your party.

Time and Location: From 3 PM until 10 PM at the Parkrose Masonic Lodge located at 4812 NE 102nd Ave. Portland, OR 97220.

Site fee: $3.00 per person for members with proof of membership and $6 for non-members ($3 non-member surcharge.) Make checks payable to “SCA, Inc. – Barony of Three Mountains.” (U.S funds only and no refunds given.)
