Barony of Terra Pomaria

The Privy

June 21st, 2011

Baron and Baroness's Words

Our warmest greetings to all of Terra Pomaria!

It would seem that Spring has finally arrived to ease the chill in our bones. It has been a busy time and will continue to be so as we enter tourney season.

The Riverfront Faire was held on a day when Winter and Spring were contesting the other's right to claim to these fair lands. Despite the cold wind and threatening skies, We were proud to see our populace extend warm welcome and courtsey to the many visitors who found their way to our world. We greatly appreciate the participation of our neighboring Scadians who travelled here and helped create a truly wonderful and memorable experience for our modern visitors. Many thanks to HL Geoffrey Fitz Henrie, event steward, his support net, HL Brigit of Guernsey, and event staff for a magical Demo.

But no rest for any of us as we turned to prepare for Bar Gemels. There will be plenty of activities to either watch or participate in. Volunteer time to help ease the burden on event staff. It is Our hope that that there will be newcomers in attendance. We call upon our members to do your utmost to bid hearty welcome to these folks and show them the best of Terra Pomaria!

Ever in Service,
Baron Michael and Baronessa Francesca

Exchequer

The Barony's bank balance as of the end of March was $3530.47. With uncashed checks the register was $3301.56. I have been tracking down the uncashed checks from as far back as September.

My deputy and I both attended a day long training session taught by the Kingdom Exchequer and we both learned quite a bit. The quarterly/Doomsday report changed at the end of 2010 and with the change, the way we do some of our accounting will have to change too. I'm in the process of working that out, but it doesn't seem to be much of a problem, just a change in thinking.

The financial committee met on April 12, and started the process of reviewing the financial policy, and hashed out a budget. Our reserve is very low and we reduced our non-event budget by nearly $2000, by reducing most of the Office budget's by 40%. This is not including Scribe – that office is using original budget to full.

Each of the officer should have received a slip showing how this tentative budget will affect their office specifically so that any projects they have planned can be addressed if needed. If you know you'll have anything exceeding that, please let us know

The finalized budget should be sent out with the business meeting notes in the next Privy.

Has received amended Winter's End final report: $1796.73 total profit/loss

Need to pick new Financial committee member

Multiple practices nothing to report

Heavy Marshal

Not here as is painting house, report given by Seneschal

Fighter practice has been picking up a little; we had two new fighters show up to practice after the demo. Several practices were cancelled due to severe illness.

The demo at Riverfront Park went well; there were no major injuries or incidents. The Golden Apple tournament was held there, the winner was Sir Rustam. He will select the weapon style for next month's tournament, but has not yet announced it. Despite automatic announcements going out about the Golden Apple this week, there will not actually be one Wednesday. Next tournament will be May 18th.

Seneschal - Moderns were very fasci-

nated

Bar Gemels is coming up. We will be holding two heavy tournaments: the traditional bar fight and a random selection tournament. Everyone planning to fight is encouraged to bring any weapons they have. All weapons and shields will be written on slips of paper and drawn by Her Excellency from a hat, two cards per fighter. Fighters must start holding both weapons but are allowed to drop one as soon as the fight starts as long as they can do so safely. Allowances will be made if the fighters do not have adequate hand protection for the weapons drawn.

Ben – trying to become Junior so can be Marshal when needed

Torsten and Maccus are already Juniors

Archery Marshal

Equestrian Marshal

List Minister

Not here as is painting house, report given by Seneschal

Not a whole lot different from the Marshal's report, really.

Golden Apple Tourney happened at the demo.

There were six fighters in a round-robin style tourney, fighting with greatswords. Lists were uneventful.

Sir Rustam ibn Abdallah was the victor, taking home the trophy and receiving chocolate coins and a copy of The Art of War for his prize. Sir Alail Horsefriend and Ulieum Haig tied for second place.

Next lists opportunity: Bar Gemels, followed by the May Golden Apple Tourney.

Privy not out – sorry – been fuzzy for last week

Exchequer

The bank balance as of April 30th was $3387.38. Our register balance including deposits from Bar Gemels and uncashed checks is $7335.10. This does not include the proceeds of the garage sale held last weekend. I'd like to commend Fortune, Brigit, and Finna for organizing and running two fundraisers that help make me a much happier exchequer.
Vern and I worked together to figure out the new quarterly report format, and manage to complete and send of the form off a week before the panicked emails began showing up on the exchequer list because the new form wasn't calculating automatically.

Gold Key was used at Bar Gemels by an unknown number, and by two newcomers at Ceilidh. I am unhappy with leaving it so utterly unattended as it was at Bar Gemels and I would love to have someone take on the office that could provide the little attention it needs to really make events work well. Barring a volunteer to take the office, I am interested in finding someone that is willing to keep the Ceilidh box and bring it to Ceilidh. There's usually only a couple of items to wash from Ceilidh. I would prefer to have the option to not attend on occasion, as the Ceilidh starts at the same time as bedtime for one of my kids.

The financial committee has not been able to meet since last business meeting. The financial policy of the barony is currently under review and we feel that the comp list at events needs to be clarified. The financial policy currently states: Those Baronial officers (i.e. Marshal, Lists person, waterbearer, etc.) who are actively performing their official duties as required at a Baronial event are exempt from paying site fee.

Baronial Champions are exempt from paying site fee when attending the next year's event in which their champion contest is held.

For event staff exemptions, the autocrat must submit a list of names for review and approval of the Finance Committee, preferably as part of the original event bid.

Other site fee exemptions include those covered by Principality and Kingdom Laws [seated Nobility, their Heirs, and Territorial Baron(s)/Baroness(es)].

This has been interpreted many different ways in the past. As we prepare to make a list of those officers and other individuals that may be comped to an event, we would like the input of the officers and populace of the barony so that we may take it into consideration. Financial committee will meet in the next couple of weeks, please get us your feedback

Looking at doing more, but looking at chance to breathe and relax

Like the garb swap at ceilidh, maybe do a Stuff exchange? Feast gear, things you made...

Estimating 75 people

Given will be a one day event, felt $10 = too much

Adult $7, child (5-15) $5
[discussion below changing Adult to $8]
Will have family cap, hasn't calculated yet
Based on 2 adults and 2 child: $26
Site cost $58
Total expenses of $358
Net projected income $137
Cannot hold archery at this site
No permanent shelter there
Made sure got right group area
Why $7 not $10?
With cost of gas and increase in NMS, want to make not overwhelming
May want to double check adult/kid ratio
Do we want to think about prereg? As courtesy, and let people know the park has a cap?
May discourage people from impulse coming Berengaria will handle if we do Does the park have cap on # of cars? YES please carpool
may be able to get parking elsewhere to supplement and shuttle if we get to the point where parking becomes issue, can afford to do that Approval of $7?

Here as steward of Acorn War to ask for Terra Pomaria participation again

New site

In Terra Pomaria – went with Berengaria, wanted to make sure we know they were offered a site in our territory

she is here as autocrat for this year's war

Dragon's Mist agreed to what asked to do

Asking Terra Pomaria to take on 3 roles

1. Gate – trust you with money, also sensible to have different branch from host branch to handle the money at a shared event

Berengaria – Maccus had to leave, wanted you to know he would be at gate

2. Marshal In Charge – Berengaria and Alail already volunteered – and coming up with war scenarios

3. Equestrian Marshal In Charge – Tassi already volunteered

Came to beg for help and found we were already helping with what she needed

Still need help with: firewatch, parking troll

Will have archery range – if you want to use it for Terra Pomaria championship?

Thank you for kind offer, but has to be at Terra Pomaria event

Date – Sept 9-11

At Mortensen Ranch

off Hwy 99, about halfway between Rickreal, Dallas, and McMinnville

How many people planning on? Initial: 300 – worried about economy and new site

– site can accommodate 700 though

Had about 250 last year

When is gate open?

Friday noon

Close by noon Sunday

What's planned Sunday?

Not sure yet

possibly championship Saturday and Equestrian games asked to combine the two branches' Equestrian gear to set up very interesting challenges

Any problem with loaning our gear to them?
No one said it'd be a problem
Anything for children?
Contact Pied Piper Ceidella, she would love suggestions
Also have 3 people in branch with background check, so won't have to cancel if she can't be there Setting up heavy scenarios for Sunday example: 5 man team melees – doesn't require much equipment, but challenging Do you have a surgeon?
Yes – Heleta is Surgeon In Charge but still need additional, can't be in two places at once Show of hands to support Mountain's Edge in this endeavor?
-overwhelming support
Thank you
Macha would like to get us all on the Acorn War
Yahoo group – Acorn War 22

Spoke with Baron & Baronessa
Move Equestrian and Archery Championships to Bar Gemels?
Equestrian CANNOT happen at Bar Gemels – site is too wet, have to nix for safety Do we want an Equestrian Championship at this point? Can we support it?
Not sure
Also think about changing date for Long & Short? Move to later? – we keep having to move or change Move archery to Bar Gemels permanently?
Bar Gemels Event set up well to handle it Back to Long & Short:
October this year, second weekend fairly open on calendar
If want to do it this year, bid needs to happen now
But also have Winter Investiture too much?
Is anyone interested in doing an Equestrian event one day out at the practice area?
Area not able to do it – space too tight for required competition spacing 2014 doing events 3 months in a row – something to think about and plan for Baronial garage sale May 13-14, Finna's yard lot from shed went in lot donated lot of people showed up to help with set up and running and teardown first time running this type of sale couldn't tell, she handled like a pro not so much pricing as asking "what would you pay?"

made $668.65
do again next year? – YES Tassi madewonderful signs!!! packed up what was left, donated to Wil-lamette Humane Society – back within an hour another thank you to Tassi for coming over to mow the sweep of lawn Finna couldn't get to

Admin retreat Sunday June 12th at Baronessa's

26th War practice at Boiler Bay – south of Lincoln City the place with caves with theoretical fences

State Fair, Artisan Village
-----penciled us in for Aug 28th
$20 = 8 hour window 11 am-7 pm to show off what we do and what the SCA means Weapons NOT allowed – can bring in amour, chainmail, helms to show 10' x 10' tent
Any particular parking for participants? On own Enter at designated gate, thinks is red gate, will have to check
Between Jackman Long Building and Columbia Hall
Volunteers must commit to a 4 hour shift – can work longer if want Limit to 2 volunteers per 4 hour shift for the free admission, others will have to use alternative sources for free entry or pay to get in May be able to get discounted tickets Torsten would like to know what people would like to show off so can arrange it all so fits nicely in small space

In order to get free or discounted admission, have to be specific what doing

Demo style – show up in garb and in persona

We have a lot going on this year, and if people haven't come to meetings may not have heard – put out email to list to get word out

Also put on Facebook page

In situation where what have to do is get bids out earlier

Especially Long & Short next year – we have a LOT happening at that event

What happened to moving the date?

Consensus to go to day event on traditional weekend this year given everything else going on

Looking at moving next year

But next year won't have problem with Sport of Kings but the year after next it will

2nd weekend in October pretty much only one not reserved

But other groups bouncing back and forth

Also to consider, if want to do more archery/ equestrian – last in August always opposite William Tell

Reminder – need bids for Winter's End and Bar Gemels – practice should be to put them in 3 months or less after last time event held, so time is now

Asking for bids to come in minimum of 72 hours before the business meeting it will be presented at, so financial committee can review

Suggestion to secure sites even before have bids if know we will want the site

Get the Camp – general agreement

Get the Church used for Winter's End?

Did we like the site? Major show of hands

Caviat – Juliana got GREAT deal on the site, may not be nearly as good

If get Camp, have to make a payment NOW

Will try negotiating – if gets deal like this year, is Exchequer willing to write check for $640?

yes

Meeting end:
8:59pm

Chronicler's Words

Greetings unto the great Barony of Terra Pomaria!

Corovestiture is past, and the tourney season is moving into full swing. Summer weather has finally come, and with the comes the sounds of War. The drums beat, the horns call— An Tir / West War is just around the corner, and the coming weekends are filling up fast.

As we all recover from our efforts these last few months, I once again send out my plea to please think about contributing an article or pictures to the Privy. It could be as simple as a story about our Barony's history, or as in depth the fruits of an Arts & Sciences research effort. As for pictures, I can't make it to every event, and it would be nice to showcase what other members of the Barony have done elsewhere. Thank you all.

Yours in Service,
Alyna Trewpeny
