Baron and Baronessa's Words

Joyous greetings we do bid unto the populace of the great lands of Terra Pomaria that stretch from her salty shores in the west, across fertile valleys and reach up the lofty mountains to the east. Summer has played hide-and-seek with us all and now it seems Fall is not far off in visiting these lands.

Throughout our travels we have been met with great courtesy and hospitality from our fellow An Tirans and brothers and sisters of the Summits. We look forward to the time when our hosts will in turn become our guests and we will be able to display our own Barony's generosity and hospitality.

We look forward to Their Royal Majesties, King Thorin and Queen Dagmaer, attending Summits' Winter Investiture – 11th Night to be held 10 December in our barony to honor Prince Brian and Princess Acacia as they stepping down from the lofty Alpine Thrones and witness the investiture of Their Heirs, Lord Laurs and Lady Ætta Surtr. Winter Investiture includes the contests for and installations of both the Captain of Cats/Rapier Champion and the Alpine Scholar/Arts & Sciences Champion as well as an evening feast. The Baronessa is the event steward and hopes to see many volunteers and artisans from across the Summits help make this a special event for all.

It is not often that one can watch an archery tournament without missing a rapier or heavy fighter contest so join us at the Baronial Archery Championship to be held at Baron Gawin's and Baroness Marianna's lands in Colton on 8 Oct. This is a great opportunity to try your hand at shooting with a bow and to show support to the archery community. Last, but not least, another Coast Fighter Practice has been scheduled for Rocky Creek State Scenic Viewpoint on 16 Oct. We hope the weather will hold and more of you will come for the fun.

Our current Arts and Sciences Champion, Companion Mhairi mon myn Cymru, will have contest rules out about the upcoming Baronial Arts and Sciences Championship to be held at Winter's End. Additional arts and sciences contests are being planned and will be announced. In an effort to encourage more participation in arts and sciences contests, the Baron's Courtiers have been tasked with mentoring individuals for competition. If you would like to be mentored, contact the Baron.

We depend upon the populace, baronial officers and deputies to keep us informed of individuals whose contributions to the Barony, both great and small, within the Barony and without, should be noted. We request that award recommendations be made to us in writing and in no less than thirty days prior to a Baronial event. There is a link for award recommendations on the Awards Page of the Barony's web site, <http://terrapomaria.antir.sca.org/awards.php>.

The deadline is to allow the Baronial Scribe time to arrange for the completion a charter or commission an original scroll for a particular award in sufficient time for presentation. It also allows our artisans enough time to create the items given to recipients of certain special awards. Award recommendations made after an event deadline will be considered for the next upcoming baronial event. We would remind you that not all recommendations may be acted upon as you may expect as these individuals may have already received a particular award, may not be attending the event or other reasons.

We remind all that our events for 2012 are open for bids. There are many in the Barony who serve in multiple capacities as officers, sergeantry and retinue. For those who are not so encumbered, consider offering service to your Barony as an event steward. Lack of experience should not be an issue as the Barony has a process in place for training new event stewards. We encourage you to contact the Baronial Seneschal, Countess Berengeria de Montfort de Carcassonne, about the bidding process or for more information about event stewardship.

Our progress calendar has been busy and promises to continue to be so as the year is not yet out. Come with us and marvel at the wonders in distant lands, make new friends, or find new knowledge and skills to share with those left here at home.

~Baron Michael and Baronessa Francesca one for people that resell things or crafting guild – sell things made from Joann's supplies Just go online, go to VIP section and enter non-profit information gives 10% discount – doesn't work with coupons – but works on things the coupons won't and

Chronicler's Words

Greetings everyone!

Here it finally is, and with the gracious help of my friends I will be back on schedule.

Fall may be here, and Crown and Coronet may have already passed, but don't think that means eventing is done for the year. There are still several activities and events coming up both in and around the barony, including Terra Pomaria's Archery Championship on its own day, October 8th. There will also be a return of Celeidh, and another coast fighter practice on October 16th. I for one am glad for another chance to go, as I couldn't make the last coast practice and I heard it was a lot of fun. Hope to see you there!

Yours In Service
Alyna Trewpeny

Dean of Pages

absent

Chamberlain

haven't done anything in shed for a while modern life reared its head – have to step down, can no longer be officer, NEED replacement latest can stay – November

Quick description of duties

– keeping track of inventory – checking things in and out – making sure gate box is restocked with forms – making sure things that need mended or replaced get taken care of

Also, TP not the only group using – we loan out as asked

Most of inventory is in shed, some in Finna's garage – specifically the obelesks so shed has maneuvering room – she is okay with them staying there for now

Still writing up inventory of shed, with where things actually are if someone can come help for a couple hours, please let her know, would be glad for help

Break, Fin committee meeting to consider Heavy Marshal proposal

Other Business:

L&S

reservation of site confirmed parking might be restricted if someone reserves other side of park most info is up on website, but there will be updates to last minute

Tourney changed, still three matches round robin, but fighters determine which weapons used

Gate open at 9, people can come for set-up at 8

– NEED people for set up please

Tourney Food Competition – for foods that can be eaten at tournament: not much prep required on site, can eat out of hand

Documentation required – but can be really simple

Prize=Travelling Dysshes book

Bonus points for dish that does not require refrigeration

Mhrari handling

Will have Trade Blanket – if you have things you don't use, or raw materials, or anything SCA related, bring to trade rules are trade item has to be SCA related, and no money can change hands

Portrait Plates Competition

haven't set categories yet would like to see pairs of plates, as how was done one is fine though can do on ceramic, or on wood any paint fine – going for style over materials

Silly scenarios for Rapier – no balloons – hard to clean up in grass

Children's activities? Only explicit thing scheduled is a page's class, not even sure what the class will be on

State Fair

Torsten not able to do due to death in family – boarding plane that morning

Berengaria will take over responsibility as Seneschal

Torsten sent email to Berta of the names for list 11am to 7 pm – need to be there through that time if have things need to drop off come to the Silverton Rd gate – C? - unloading area there bring Equestrian display? - yes please!

what areas being represented?

Armor, food, horse,

Brochures? - Torsten working on new (same as old, just removing names so can use over longer time period), also will use the old will get to Berengaria before leave

Acorn War

Maccus got in touch with Macca – trying to get him info for preregistration for Gate will put out request on list asking for help with gate

if interested send him email

Tassi – pretty set with what planned so far, but if things have changed they haven't let her know yet

Brigit is teaching

Berengaria and others are Marshaling

Winter Investiture

Event Information Form has gone through have access to Kingdom Event Calender hoping to have some info up there this week, and out to the list making table banners got call in to hotel re: booking group rates looking at group rooms at hotel, as had planned to hold Moot and Curia Sunday morning so Saturday less crowded concern raised: Moot and Curia held Saturday as a lot of people will be day tripping, try to save them cost of having to stay the extra day Moot/Curia moved back to Saturday

Open Forum/new business

Her Highness Acacia:

Baroness Kate has always set up Baroness tea at Coronet – can't do it this time need someone to head up, and people to make and bring things

Presentation for Round Table of scroll and speech for Thank You for gracious hosting :)

Archery Championship

Need to decide what going to do with Archery championship as won't have at L&S

Couple ideas discussed

Archers involved can all come Oct 8th – second Saturday

Baron Gawin has graciously offered his area to host the championship would be free event

– may need a little help cleaning up the site before hand do we have someone and things to set up range?

Maccus has

Would be nice to have potluck, and spectators, and general gathering

Gawin mentioned would let people stay overnight if desired

Privies? Have rented in past when used before up in Colton

As doing unofficial, would have to invest at Winter's End

If don't do, William Christopher willing to hold on to the title for an extended time

Do need to have someone to head up

Make sure copy goes out on List and Privy

Want to make sure archers don't feel shunted aside

Has discussed the idea with William Christopher – he believes it shouldn't feel that way but need to have good turnout in support

Will be one time thing – want to keep archery championship attached to L&S but with the conflict with William Tell – need longer discussion about how handle future events maybe attach to Acorn War? If they keep holding it down in our area

Simon volunteered to autocrat, provided someone supervises

Maccus steps up to supervise

Need to meet with Baron and Baronessa for information on what already done

Berengaria willing to be convinced to organize potluck

Is there money for an additional event like this?

Will have to do quick budget, with Financial Committee

Coast fighter practice want to do again?

Yes – only 6 people came but lots of fun wasn't windy, a little breezy

Did find another site a mile further south more sheltered is second site more kid friendly? No advantage of both, visible from highway can we put up fliers beforehand?

But not doing as a demo

But good idea to have pamphlets

Suggestion made to do it somewhere in Lincoln City itself – bigger population to pull from, and where the group was

When we looking at holding?

Looking at Sept 25th but Amergin's revel in Adiantum

3rd Sunday in October?

Adiantum may have reserved...

Checked, is free

Sunday, October 16th – another fighter practice on coast

date set, will start putting on lists

30-20-10

30-20-10 for TP is coming: 30 years as branch, 20 years as barony, 10 as part of summits do a special event for it? General agreement Do not want to see a separate event if Winter's End, Bar Gemels, and L&S have not been bid out

Need bids

Torsten putting something together for Winter's End, just didn't have forms by tonight

If your address or numbers are not updated on the populace directory, please let Juliana know

Did we ever discuss donation to Warlord Funds?

Made pennants

Other Principality groups automatically tithe funds to their Principality travel funds would love to see Summits groups donating on regular basis can the Barony come up with something we can do on a regular basis? Think on it

Meeting end: 8:44pm
