Baron and Baroness's Words

Greetings unto the Grand and Noble Populace of Terra Pomaria,

Seasons, they change... they always change... they have to, it is the way of things...

As the winter draws to an end so does our term as Baron and Baroness. We sit now together, next to the hearth putting quill to parchment, to pen our final words to you, our dear populace. We are filled with a surprising amount of emotion, but we are certain it must be the smoke or the dim candle light that is making our eyes swell with tears. Our hearts ache and the melancholy flows over us like the cold winter An Tir rains. Yet they are tempered by the warm excitement of what lies before us as we ponder our future and what we will do once we step down and are released by the Crown from our oaths to care and nurture these lands for the sovereign.

We have been and remain ever so honored to have been the Baron and Baroness of these lands, but evermore so to be the Baron and Baroness to such fine people of such tremendous character and strength. As rare as it is in nature for lightning to strike twice in the same place, I think it just as unlikely that we shall ever again be so blessed to represent so fine a populace.

We struggle to find the words to describe how we feel about each and every one of you, the populace of Terra Pomaria. The best our feeble words can muster is that we are so very proud of you. And if the sin of pride is one that I must bear to convey how much the populace of this Barony means to us and how we feel about you, then we gladly bear it. We can never thank you enough for what you have done for us throughout the years, and we could never repay the blessings you have freely given. However, you can know this for certain, you have our friendship, esteem, and gratitude always.

We are filled with joy when we think upon what this Barony has done and how it has matured to blossom and bear tremendous fruit while we have been Baron and Baroness.

We are filled with a giddy excitement like children waiting for Christmas for the Crown to announce who will lead Terra Pomaria into a grand new era. We know that there are concerns that we will disappear for the face of the planet, or that we may leave the society or not play anymore. We assure you that is not now or has it ever been our intention. We will still be active in the barony, the principality, and the Kingdom. Our successors will have our full support, and we encourage all members of the populace to rally around and support whoever the Crown selects to represent Terra Pomaria. It is our deepest desire to see Terra Pomaria continue to grow and thrive.

So our friends, seasons change as they must, and with the coming of the Spring, so comes new life, and along with it new energy, vitality, and bold new leadership for our barony. We bid you brightest blessings always.

In service to Terra Pomaria, The Summits and An Tir,

Sir Ruland von Bern and Meistrin Emma von Bern

Winter's End

Come one, come all, to shake loose the cold and damp of the winter months and display your projects that you have toiled over these long nights. The Barony of Terra Pomaria invites you to our Winter's End celebration on February 26, 2011.

Come and witness the final court of Sir Ruland and Meisterin Emma, fourth Baron and Baroness of Terra Pomaria, and celebrate the investiture of the next Baron and Baroness of Terra Pomaria. There will be a Grand Feast to warm your chilled bones (with off-board seating available) and classes to revive the parts of your head not already taken with frostbite. A new Arts and Sciences Champion for the Barony will be chosen from those daring enough to try. For those brave enough to defend the barony with their steel, a new Rapier Champion will also be named. Music, games, and dancing will be encouraged to welcome in the festive spring season. Local artisans are encouraged to display their wares for trade. Lastly, not one, not two, but three contests will be available for the masses, with prizes for all. The first, a "T-tunic" contest to help fill the bins of our Gold Key; second an Officer Regalia competition to make our officers more visible to those that need them; and last, but not least, for the best period feast setting. Please join our fair group for a day to be remembered throughout the coming seasons.

Autocrat: Kenji (Ben Mitchell), P.O. Box 7973, Salem, OR 97303, 503-798-2802, KenjiSCA@gmail.com

Fees:

Event: Adults: $10, Youth (13-17) and Children (5-12): $5, 4 and under: free, Family cap: $35 (2 adults and modern immediate family only please and does not include NMS), NMS $5 per adult. Feast: $10 per adult and youth, $7 for children. Please make checks payable to Terra Pomaria, SCA Inc. Registration: Pre-Registration for the feast is required. The form can be found at:

<http://terrapomaria.antir.sca.org/wintersend.php>

Site: Unitarian Universalist Congregation, 5090 Center St. NE, Salem, OR 97317. Site opens at 9 am and closes at 10 pm Directions: Traveling on I-5, take Market Street exit and head East on Market street; Turn right (South) on to Lancaster Dr, turn left (East) on Center street, church will be on the right after crossing Cordon Rd

Arts and Sciences Championship

We will be choosing the Baronial Arts and Sciences Champion at Winters End in 2011. This years challenge is to show that you can truly stand as a Defender of the Arts and Sci-ences. To compete for Champion;

* You must have two entries. One is to be a Sci-ence entry and the other an Arts entry. You are allowed to "overlap" by writing and/or demon-strating the Science behind the creation of your Arts entry.

* You are allowed up to three entries, the two highest will be used for your score.

* Write a letter that you intend to compete to their

Arts and Sciences Championship

Excellencies, Baron Ruland and Baroness Emma.
(yes, it can be one of your entries but this is not required)

Catagories;

Science; mathmatics, geometry, astronomy, al-chemy, explain about the science behind a craft such as metal smithing, guilding on objects, enamel, firing clay...

Fiber Arts any area pertaining to fibers; shearing, spinning, felting dyeing, weaving, including tapes-tries that are woven, embroidered or painted.

Costuming the making of clothing and the many embellishments used on clothing.

Performing Arts Show your ability to entertain using poetry,song, or story.

Scribal Arts - Illumination, calligraphy and making paper, parchment wax tablets and books or the printers art.

Culinary Arts Making and cooking period foods. This entry may be your potluck contribution if you choose.

Decorative Object Objects for personal adornment and decorative uses.

Useful Object Make a useful object from wood, metal, horn, leather or other materials

Armor and Weapons how they were made or the ways they were used.

Written paper on a subject; tell us about a cul-ture, trade routes, goverment, religion, education or you may have an idea not listed here.

* If you chose to write a paper it must be no longer than 20 pages, including the bibliography.

The paper must be submitted ON OR BEFORE FEBUARY 15TH 2011 to allow the judges time to read and evaluate it. You may email it to skmccartney@gmail.com It must be RECEIVED ON OR BEFORE FEB. 15TH

If you have questions about the contest please contact Master Alail Horsefriend at skmccartney@gmail.com

Chronicler's Words

Greetings unto our wondrous Barony of Terra Pomaria!

What a month, eh? Between the excitement of the Baronial polling, and Winter's End fast bearing down on us, it sometimes seems that our humble Barony has had the weight of the world's graze resting on us; lets show them how wonderful we are.

Please do consider contributing an article or two. I would love to include items written by my fellow members of the populace. Whether it's an in-depth paper researching some obscure facet of 14th century Germany, or brief thoughts on being a Seneschal, Autocrat, or Baron and Baroness—send it by and I'll see if I can put it in.

And Pictures—pictures give extra life and depth to the Privy, as they can show what your fellow gentles are doing. They also make the Privy more fun to look through. As you can see from the empty space to the right, it's not from lack of space there are no pictures, it's simply I have no pictures to use.

Finally, I want to thank you all for your patience with me as I get my bearings. Your support has inspired me to keep forging onward even when I'm feeling slightly overwhelmed.

Yours in Service,
Alyna Trewpeny

Business Meeting Notes
January 17, 2011

Meeting start 7:09

Attendance: Fortune, Amlyn, Kenji, Brigit, Geoffery, Tassi, (her lord), Berta, Magdalena, Juliana, Melanie, Ann the Red, Francesca, Michael, Egan, Mattea, Maccus, Ariana of Whiteford, Rhianin de Clair, Finna, Alexia, Lindis, Berengaria, Alail, Catherine Quihting, Dikran, Lynn

Seneschal

Greetings unto Their Excellencies Baron Ruland and Baroness Emma of Terra Pomaria, and all the populace of Terra Pomaria:

Welcome to the first business meeting of 2011. We have a busy and exciting year ahead of us, and I wish to thank all of the officers and volunteers who stepped up to serve in 2010.

We have two of our major events just ahead: Winter's End and Bar Gemels, of which we will hear more later in the evening. I hope you are all as excited as I am by these opportunities for the barony to come together to work and play on our signature events, and provide a fun and welcoming atmosphere for all of the visitors we anticipate to these lands.

We also have our next Riverfront Demo coming up in April; this is an exciting opportunity to demonstrate what we do to the wider modern world at large, and hopefully attract some new members to our barony. In addition to the talented Terra Pomarians who will turn out, I'm delighted to report that Prince Durin will be bringing some fighters to showcase the noisiest activity that we do.

I wanted to share with you a couple of items from the Kingdom Seneschal's meeting at 12th Night:

Baron James reminded us that we have a zero tolerance policy; there have been occasional questions on how to implement this in cases where an individual has a permit for possession of medically prescribed marijuana, and the short answer is that while we acknowledge the power of the modern permit, we are to insist that any such medically permitted user leave the site to exercise this right - even simply going across the street for the period of use will do - because of the fact that we do have zero tolerance, and the casual passer-by catching the aroma will not mentally make the distinction between our group's rules and our tolerance of someone bearing a permit.

Baron James announced that there will be a revisit of the minimum Kingdom event fee for Kingdom events. On the subject of fees, he noted that he discourages day fees for weekend-long events; although we respect the fact that many of us are juggling work, school and family schedules to fit in dropping by an event on a busy weekend, as a group we still wind up paying the same rent and the same expenses on items such as privies in order to anticipate the maximum peak attendance during the weekend. He's not forbidding day trip fees, but the office's policy is that the day fee must exceed 50% of the entire weekend cost. On the concern about holding down expenses for families, he highly recommends the use of family caps. He encouraged us to not under price our events when setting fees.

Thank you all for your support and unity in the hectic days just ahead; as most of you know, we are in the middle of our baronial polling process. Meisterin Lindis will speak later in the meeting about this; all questions should go to her.

Yours in service to Crown, Kingdom and Society,

Countess Berengaria de Montfort de Carcassonne, OR, OP

Open Forum/new business

Baronial polling: Lindis

Formal intro of candidates: 2 minutes to say something about their history in the SCA and why they'd be good as next Baron and Baroness:

Egan and Mattea

Egan: 18th year, 3 kingdoms

Mattea: 11 years, started in college – first event: Estrella

Think would be ideal – yes, youngest and lowest, but fresh new energetic

Observed various ways of doing things

Respect traditions, balance new and old

Terra Pomaria most vibrant, friendly and coherent group they've been in

First rule – keep it that way
But bring more balance

Terra Pomaria in past sort of folksy – want more ceremony
Ceremony, authentic, and fun
3 pillars – want to look at selves and pillars and see where can go

Growth

Magic moments – clarity when you could be there and then
Hope will be allowed

Maccus and Arianna

Maccus: sergeant

Band B announcement

Invested much time in improvement of barony

Here through past and present reigns

Observed many changes

Some of the finest fighters, artisans, and service in An Tir

Even when up

Make the most of what we have to offer artisanship, skills, service, friendship

Arianna:

Looking forward to really bringing some of the magic – stepping back in time

Francesca and Michael

Michael:

Started mostly as background player – mostly behind the scene support

Francesca had finger in every office at some point

Finally took kingdom office – exposed him to more pomp

Opportunity to step out of shell and encourage other background people to step forward

Extension of officer support of barony

Would like to see more actively recruiting new members
See more recruitment for baronial officers
Getting all of populace to share skills and knowledge
Having a fun and exciting experience

Alail and Berengaria:

Titles and awards
Playing in SCA since before Summits was a Principality
Can represent the barony well to kingdom and other groups
Berengaria lived various places, knows each group has unique flavors and quirks – wants to preserve
Served as Queen of AnTir
Been on both ends, just not the middle
See sergeants back more
Promote scribal and youth and officers
Welcoming newcomers – but also welcome and cherish established members
Travel to prince and king events already – something strongly believe in

Would like to grow fighter population as well

Lindis: thanks for respecting the 2 min limit and the pressure of condensing it

Thurs at 7 – moderating Q&A session – may change up the format

Gotten lost of questions, but some people haven't sent her anything

No individual questions allowed – not targeted at any one individual

Only have room for 2 ½ hours
Will be there at 6:30 if you want to ask her something and/or submit questions; questions must be submitted by 6:45p

Mistress Attiah will be there, as well as possible surprise guests – crown okay with just them, but Lyndis invited more

Polling forms will be mailed Friday: already stamped and ready to go

Lots of inquiries from citizenship people – those outside our borders also involved

-if you don't get a form for whatever reason, it isn't an evil plot – just write the crown directly yourself – before Feb 4th
Rec format – candidates names, followed by impressions of them
THIS IS NOT A VOTE – you are merely giving the crown your input

-can we make audio recording? – yes if get everyone to sign waiver

Is at (pull from email)

MUST be postmarked by Feb 4th – otherwise out of luck

-is address accurate? – Lindis checked with queen, should be right – if they bounce back, call Lindis and she will panic for us all

Posted candidates letters of intent to yahoo group
Populace will be notified via email by the crown of the crown's choice

Meeting end: 8:25p

A Chronicler's Farewell

Greetings unto your Excellencies Emma and Ruland,

When I first came to the SCA, I wanted to play, but I wasn't sure about how those already established in the Society's structure would treat those new to the game—and there you were, upholding the position and dignity of being higher nobility, and yet real and approachable as everyday humans. Your welcoming presence made me more comfortable with venturing into the unknown that was the Society, and gave me a place I felt safe to be myself. And so I stayed.

Thank you for being my first Baron and Baroness.

Yours in Service,
Alyna Trewpeny
