

The Privy

The Barony of Terra Pomaria

October 6, 2013

Words from the Society Seneschal

Over a year ago the office of the Society Seneschal began a complete revamp of the sanction process. The Grand Council assisted in this mammoth project as did past society seneschals, kingdom seneschals, members of the royalty and past board members. Special thanks to the feedback from individuals that have gone through the sanction process in the past and the subscribers to the society seneschal's unofficial Facebook page.

The new sanction guide cannot exist without changes to corpora therefore both of these documents are being put up for commentary as they are matched pair. You can find PDFs of those documents on the society seneschal's webpage at <http://socsen.sca.org/>. Commentary will be open for 60 days and should be sent to comments@SCA.org. The commentary period concludes December 28, 2013. If sending in commentary it will be helpful to reference specific page number and section number.

The plan is to hopefully put this project in front of the board for approval at the January 2014 board meeting. If you have questions for me directly please contact me at seneschal@SCA.org. Members may also request a hard copy of these changes by mail or email at membership@sca.org. Hard copy requests must include modern names, membership numbers, and full mailing addresses in order for requests to be filled."

September Business Meeting Minutes

Terra Pomaria Officers Meeting---

September 16, 2013

Meeting Start: 7:00 pm

In Attendance: Melannei Athenaios, Mathea Volpella da Perusia, Simon Swanbourne, Griffith, Weylyn Middleson, Peder Georg Jensen, Ainslee Goldheart, Catarine Quhiting, Santinus Da Ferrera, Andrew Crowe, Amira di Lupo, Egen Brauer von Regensburg, Ulf the Wanderer, Jolid ibn Hayder, Emelyn Fulredy, and Fidelia. Marcus is attending electronically through Google Hangouts/Youtube.

Minutes taken by: Melannei Athenaios

Baron and Baronessa's Opening Words:

Crown was a lot of fun. We are trying to have a large open area for Terra Pomaria to be able to camp with us at every event we camp at. We are doing this at Coronet as well. You don't need to have a period tent. At Coronet, we will have the baronial pavilion on the eric and both fighters and other populace are welcome to use the shade. Martinmas is coming up. Please remember to submit recommendations, baronial, principality, and kingdom! We will also be accepting letters of intent for the sargeantry program. Thank you all for sending in your reports and copying the baron and baroness.

Officer Reports

Seneschal: Lately, I have been dismayed at the delays that we have encountered in planning events. Our pool of available event stewards is small to begin with, and seems to be shrinking all the time. Even in the cases where we do have an event steward, we seem to constantly be running up against deadlines and ending up in panic mode. The worst part about this trend is that delay takes away our choices. We end up in situations where the site is already booked, we have no wiggle-room to negotiate with a site, or events and activities have to be canceled altogether.

Running an event is not scary! Event stewards work in a team, so you never have to be stuck out on a limb alone. You can get your friends together and make it fun. There are many people in this barony who are ready to step up and help. The event steward is more of a coordinator and planner than trying to do it all yourself. A pair of stewards is a chance for less experienced stewards to learn from those who are more experienced, regardless of who the steward of record is. If you have a more "ad hoc" team, that's okay, too. I'm willing to be flexible and work with whatever setup you have.

Multiple bids for an event are also welcome. It gives us options and choices.

Let your inspiration guide you. If you have an idea of something that you love or something you want to do for your Baroness, you can build it up into an event or get together with a friend who has an event idea and work with them to make the activity happen. I want people to have fun. Yes, there are some rules that have to be followed, but overall, we've got lots of flexibility. If you have questions or are anxious, talk to me! I can help you! If you don't have much in the way of ideas, you can ask the Baron and Baroness what they would like to see.

A suggestion was made to re-institute the deadlines listed in the customary at 9 months before the event and then 6 months before the event if no bids come in. This way there is a visible deadline to help motivate those that are considering bidding, and we have the opportunity to hopefully receive multiple deadlines and choose between them. The suggestion was adopted and Melannei will add the deadlines to the business meeting notes.

Exchequer: Statement balance as of 8/30/13 was $10,389.44. Our balance as of 9/15/13 is $10340.14, $574.57 of which is Ithra's. We also have $1000 in the Regalia fund. This gives us a general fund balance of $8765.57.

Chamberlain: Absent. Nothing to report for September, posted proposal for Regalia Committee to Facebook group.

Librarian-VACANT: Amira is interested and is working on setting up her garage with shelves etc. She is not ready to take the office at this time.

Heavy Marshall: Last month Golden Apple was canceled due to lack of participation. This Thursday will be Golden Apple. It will be "bring your best". Coronet is coming up and we have a massive amount of people going. It's wonderful to see people supporting our fighters in crown or coronet. Next Thursday Peder will be the Sr Heavy Marshall at fighter practice as I will be out of town. I very close to having two bags of loaner gear, where all they will need is sword and shield. No injuries at all this month. We are losing one of our fighters, Griffith, for about a year.

Rapier Marshall: As I have been unable to attend practice for the past month I have no report other than that the Barony has added one more rapier fighters, HL Andrew Crowe who recently moved here from the Barony of Adiantum.

Deputy: Everything's going great, averaging 4 to 6 fighters at practice. I have the start for a Golden Apple "trophy". We (the rapier fighters) were thinking of having the tourney on a different day than the heavy fighters, so that our "cross trainers" can participate in both tournaments. Haven't set a date, yet. There was no sunday practice for September. A big welcome to Andrew. He's been helping us along. Giving us great tips. No injuries or problem to report. Our Baronial Rapier Championship will be during Martinmas in November. Don Chrestien will be MIC.

List Mistress: Absent. No list activities since last month.

Target Archery-VACANT: no interest, but we do have people trained as TAMs with the barony now.

Equestrian Marshall: Absent. She will try to have a practice on September 28th. This may be the last practice for the year depending on weather and health. I will try to have the webminister update the website.

Youth Combat Marshall: VACANT. No current interest.

Herald: Completed conflict checking for 2 device requests: 1) Alina Trupenny - Purpure, a domestic cat rampant Or, on a chief Or three butterflies purpure 2) Baron Peder Georg Jensen - Quarterly Or and sable, two roses Or, and a border argent Consulting Deputy: 1) Worked with Magdalena on her household name and badge; it should be ready to go. 2) Advised Elena and Williame (from the coast) prior to submission of paperwork. 3) Amira di Lupo and Alyse Peppit Clark passed Kingdom; in commenting period at the Laurel level. 4) Personal device in process through system. 5) Finalized documentation for Weylyn and Leora. 5) Participated several unofficial consultations on the "SCA Heraldry Chat" Facebook group 6) Began commenting on submissions at the kingdom level on OSCAR.

There has been a request for classes on heraldry. The herald will talk to the Chatelaine about adding it to the ceilidh schedule. Deputy is working on developing a class, first hour being lecture and second hour be "making stuff".

A&S: A&S has slowed down a bit this month. We had a gathering in August, small but productive. People did research and worked on fiber arts. This month will also be a general gathering, at the usual place. Next month, October, we will return to the 4th Sunday for A&S because we will be starting Celidh again.

Because I failed to send out the email in a timely fashion, the deadline for A&S Championship letters of intent has been pushed forward to the 18th of October. I encourage everyone to enter!

The A&S championship is coming up at Martinmas in November; everyone is encouraged to compete. Letters of intent should be sent to me and to the Baron and Baroness; I would like to receive them by no later than the 18th of October. The format will be thus: Minimum of two entries from two different categories--brewing, leatherwork, clothing, embroidery. One may be a pure research paper if desired. More entries are encouraged, but you will be scored by the two best entries. Documentation is required for all entries. Judging will be by a panel of (hopefully) three judges, picked for their knowledge of the entries. You must be present at your display during the judging, as you will be asked questions and asked to demonstrate any active portions of your display. Any special equipment required for your display--stoves, tools, etc--must be supplied by you. Please contact me with any questions, or to sent your letter of intent.

I'm looking forward to seeing the entries! Don't be intimidated; the documentation part isn't nearly as difficult as people imagine and can actually be fun.

Anyone who wishes to teach something at an A&S day, or who has a topic to request, please get in touch with me. I am still looking for a replacement. I have a contingency deputy but she cannot take the A&S position.

Juliana is willing to start bardic again. There were 5 Terra Pomaria populace members at Galeran's bardic last week who would really like to participate.

Coastal Deputy: We had a low turn out for Sept A&S mostly due to illness that stuck most areas over the weekend. We had a total of 4 in attendance (1 was her first ever sca event). I showed her how to cut out simple garb and I helped her with a tudor sewing project that she was having problems with.

We had some woodworking and sewing with some good laughs. In November we will be doing a night to help those who want to finish projects before the Martinmas competition or want to work on Feast etiquette. We have had a request to add additional A&S nights in the south county area I am looking into the logistics of this and we may add an October A&S night focused on Embroidery with Anja as a teacher in Waldport. I am still working on the details and if we could have a decent turn out.

We have some interest in forge work and agate carving.

Chronicler: The Privy did go out this month. The previous month's Privy was accessed 190 times. Anyone who would fill out a model release form, please let me know and I will send you the paperwork via e-mail.

Grete Boke: out of town for work. No report sent.

Web Minister: Absent. I am still working on the populace page and hope to get it running again soon. I have received some information on Martinmas that is currently on the site and the Event Steward is working with me on getting the information she wants up on the site as it becomes available. Chronicler sent webminister 3 release forms, the cheque request, and the event report form and monthly event report form. Any other forms that need to be on website, please e-mail them to kenjisca@gmail.com Chirurgion: VACANT. No current interest. If you are interested contact Kenji or Mathea.

Chatelaine: Celidh site has been approved. Salem Heights Hall Oct- May. The first ceilidh will be game night and desserts. I have been contacted by 1 newcomer this month.

There were two people who went to the bardic event as their first SCA event and came home excited and ready to research names etc.

I'd like to put forth the idea for having a "Newcomers" event. It would be a one day event with classes geared towards people who are either new to the SCA completely or who just want a refresher course. What do people think? My idea would be for there to be 2-4 classes, socializing, a small dayboard, and a potluck feast. I would prefer for the event to be free, and only have a donation jar. Both Kayla's church in Dallas and the Keizer Lion's Club were put forward as possible sites. Response at meeting was positive and seneschal requested that she find a site and put together a bid for the financial committee.

Suggestions for classes: General etiquette, not just court etiquette. How to tell what SCA symbology means? Basic camp skills.--things to bring with you etc, SCA 101 (Mathea). Period food class.

Coastal Deputy: My report for this month is that I've spent the month getting the date scheduled for the next coastal meet and greet. It's on October 1st. The location it will be at is ancient light in Waldport. We're going to be making pastries for snacks. The meet and greet will be a garbed event.

Gold Key: VACANT. Once Fidelia has moved and purchased her membership she would be interested.

Scribe: Absent. The last monthly meeting was at MBC gaming. There were 5 attendees. The next meeting will be Wednesday the 18th at Ike Box, on 229 Cottage Street NE Salem.

Family Activities Coordinator: Nothing to report.

Event Reports

Prelude to War August 9-11, 2013:

Well, Prelude is all wrapped up. Unfortunately, because of low attendance, we lost a considerable amount of money. We had expenditures of $1207.80, and income of $420.00, for a total loss of $787.80.

Things that could have been done differently: I should have pushed advertising more heavily. I think this was the single largest contributing factor to the loss. Having a deputy event steward to handle some of the details would have helped as well. I overestimated the number of attendees to expect, and based facilities on getting significantly higher attendance. Also, I should have clarified that we had exclusive use of the site, as we had several unexpected mundanes left over from the music festival. 46 people through the gate, including comps.

Pros: The site was free, and the site owners loved us. We, as usual, left the site cleaner than we found it. The site owners would love to have us back in future years. And according to the attendees, everyone seemed to have fun.

Once again I want to thank everyone who helped, including but by no means limited to Ainslee, Mathea, Berengaria, Alail, Elena, Melannei, all the teachers, all the fighters, all the people who came to take classes or camp work or just have fun.

State Fair Demo August 25, 2013: State Fair Demo-I want to thank all of my Volunteers for helping with the Fair Demo. I know the weather worked against you. I understand brochures were passed out but I regret to say I haven't had any contacts from it yet.

Upcoming Events

Martinmas November 16, 2013: Event Steward absent. The EIF is done and the Crier copy is in. There was a planning meeting earlier this month.

Spring Coronet March 28-30, 2014: The financial committee received a bid from Berte and Bera. Approx break even point is 120 adults. The site is the Polk County fairgrounds main building, but we don't know enough about the site because Bera has had a great deal of trouble getting in touch with the site. Amira indicated that she has access to land that abuts the Polk County fairgrounds and if necessary we can put tents on that land. Mathea will get her in touch with event stewards.

Bar Gemels April 25-27, 2014: The bid submitted by Melannei Athenaios has been accepted by the finance committee. A summary of bid follows:

Bar Gemels had a fabulous year last year and it is my hope that we can keep the momentum going in 2014. I have been listening to the voices of the populace, and I hear enthusiasm for many of the new activities tried at Bar Gemels, but I also hear grief at the loss of some traditions that have been left behind in the process. I will do my best to bring the best of both worlds, providing the tavern atmosphere with the "doesn't take itself too seriously" feel that Bar Gemels is known for. Games will be available to play in the tavern, and the bar wench smackdown and possibly the bar brawl will have their place on the schedule. I hope to include a bardic in the evening as well. Of course, the Youth Championship would be showcased! I am also hoping to provide a variety of classes and activities, including rapier, archery, and YAC.

With the same fees as last year, minus the child site fees, at 150 adults and 12 youths (split evenly between weekend and daytrip) I estimate that the income after expenses would be $392. The main difference in expenses on my bid compared to last years is the addition of a biffie at each cabin, to be more in compliance with our contract with Camp Taloali.

I want to note, this bid is a pessimistic forecast for the event. The attendance numbers listed here are lower than all but one of the three recent years that I have access to. (2010, 2011, 2013) It is my hope that with early planning and advertising, the attendance will be higher than forecasted. The kitchen has always broken even, as I listed in the bid, but two of the three years it made $500. I figured pessimistically, as this will be a new feast steward, after at least 4 years of the fabulous (but exhausted) Mhairi.

The EIF is nearly done, and my plan for this month is to get the main players in my staff lined up and the contract signed. Fortune verch Thomas has offered to be my pre-reg coordinator, but I still need a gate coordinator and surgeon and I'll be talking to our officers about their availability. For their respective positions at the event. Also, offering the bar wench smackdown and the bar brawl are dependent on finding enthusiastic volunteers to run them. Some concern about lack of participation in the past bar brawls was mentioned.

Suggestions were made for a torchlight tourney and the pas d'armes. Baron and Baroness would like to introduce a bardic championship at Bar Gemels.

Discussion was had regarding holding a YAC championship at Bar Gemels. Decision was made to put YAC championship on a different event than youth championship, probably Long & Short. Baron and Baroness will talk to Duessa about whether she feels the YAC community has grown enough for championship.

If YAC activities, need a difference YAC officer than Duessa most likely, but she would be able to put us in touch with the appropriate people.

Long & Short-June 6-8 2014: Bids are due December 13, 2013 (Friday before business meeting). Some interest in bidding. Adair park has been used twice and is a great option, but please put 10% of profit to Cour du Val in your bid if you choose the site.

Prelude to War August 8-10, 2014: Date is tentative. Next year is Adiantum's turn but it would be good to have a liaison to coordinate with them.

HWY coffee stop fundraiser: Tabled, until after the heavy event season ends.

Customary: Go over the customary as it reads now so that we can have customary rewrite. The Customary meeting is Scheduled for October 13, 2013 at 1 pm. Mathea will check if IKE box is available.

Andrew Crowe: I'm a resource. I've autocrated coronet, Egil's (twice), a herald, a senior rapier marshall. I want to get a feel for the Terra Pomaria way of doing things rather than stepping in and trying to change it. In the meantime, I have knowledge—please take it from me!
