

The Priory

Barony of Terra Pomaria

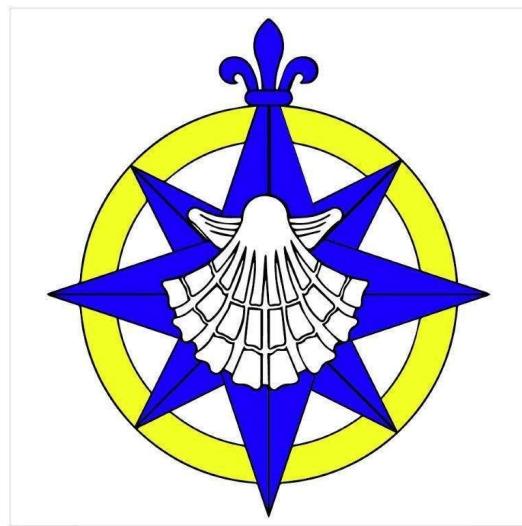

June 27, 2015

This, is the badge for the Newcomer Identification System I have been hinting about... We are spreading this program, which is the creation of Kettera Geise, the Chatelaine of 3 Mountains, Following is her description of the idea... "The symbol consists of a compass star and a scallop shell. The compass star is to symbolise that a newcomer is seeking guidance and direction and that every member in the SCA can and should be providing knowledge and acting as a guide and a direction point. The scallop is used because of its historical context. Pilgrims on the El Camino were given scallop so that as they were traveling the route they could request charity and sustenance from abbeys, monasteries and churches- "enough for a scallop shell full so that all could provide for the pilgrims without causing undue hardship for any". This history is still honored today on the El Camino by those self same churches, abbeys and monasteries by providing areas of rest. The purpose of the newcomer system is to allow people to identify newcomers and to allow newcomers to identify people they can approach with comfort to ask questions without feeling they are interrupting or a bother. And although everyone is usually more than willing to answer questions there are times when it is not as suitable as others.....this can lead to misunderstanding and feeling unwelcome....this will hopefully reduce some of these while allowing everyone to share the fun and their passion in the SCA. So how does this work? Well there are a couple of moving parts ( aren't there always?!). The first is bags with the above symbol on it that newcomers can pick up at the gate or what ever pick up point you decide for your branch. With some education whether this is at meetings or at gate or via handouts or maybe all three depending on your branch. This helps identify at least some of the newcomers at an event. The second moving part is mini banners and or tags/belt favors ( something removable). People in your branch can put the banners up in their encampment, dayshade, sitting area or wear the tag when THEY are willing and available to answer questions newcomers may have. This allows for example any of the martial activities competitors the opportunity to introduce and answer questions about their sport at a time that works for them and the newcomer rather than just before they step onto the competitors field. Thanks for your interest and enthusiasm for this tool to help all newcomers and help us allow so many more to enjoy the comradery and magic of the SCA. " Kettera Giese, Chatelaine for the Barony of Three Mountains

June Business Meeting Minutes

Terra Pomaria Officers Meeting--

June 15, 2015

Meeting Start: 7:08 pm

In Attendance:

Minutes taken by: Berte le Webere
Baron and Baroness' Opening Words: Long and Short of It happened; it was amazing. Thanks to event steward, Weylyn, Tassi for equestrian, William Christopher for archery, as well as archery marshal. Thanks for everyone's work.

Officer Reports

Seneschal: thanks also for lands, make sure moot report are sent off by Wednesday.

Social Media Deputy-VACANT:
Family Activities Coordinator: I have nothing new from last months meeting. As of today I have officially stepped down from my position as the Family Activities Coordinator. I will coordinate with Countess Berengaria to get the baronial boxes put back into the shed. It has been an honor to serve the families of the Barony for the past 3 years and hope to see more children and families participate in the future.

Exchequer: Our ledger and bank balances are $11,576.40.

Finance committee decisions that were made in the last month: At the last business meeting, the financial committee accepted the proposed figures for Martinmas. Fee for comic con in August, approved. Chamberlain: Greetings unto the Baron & Baroness of Terra Pomaria and all assembled officers & populace: In which our plucky heroine endeavors, yet again, to survive one of the worst allergy seasons on record coupled with mind-numbing heat...I do not have much to report this month, save that Baronessa Francesca and I are going to endeavor yet again this week to meet at the shed to put away the large crock pot (now that the shell's been cleaned) and replace the lock. That is looking iffy for the week owing to the proximity of Coronet and my modern workload. I would also like to request again that the financial committee discuss my request to purchase a robust rice cooker to replace the one that died at or before Bar Gemels. I anticipate the model I want will run up to $70; I will try to find it for less, but I would like to have the latitude for the expense.

Librarian: There is nothing new to report on the library this month. Everything is pretty much the same as it has been.

Heavy Marshall: Long and Short had a great tournament and perfect weather. 8 combatant 4 competed for defender. Yoen new defender. Difficulty getting combatants for defender tourneys. Discussion on why this trend is happening. Yoen fought well and Weyln was happy with everyone's fighting. Mid Willamette last week. Duke and 3 knights. No injuries all month. Looking forward to war events. Field with blue crush is welcome

Rapier Marshall: I apologize for not being there tonight. Rapier report June 2015 Practices have been light, 5-6 fighters, no incidents or issues to report. MidValley practice was well attended, with 10. Long and Short was a lot of fun. Don Victor won the Princess Bride trials. And for duels at dusk, Don Andrew Crowe. I am looking for a deputy to help with practices this summer. Someone willing to take loaner gear to practice on days that I might not be able to make it. Deep woods Estate had a children's day in the garden last Saturday. Although this was not an official demo for us, Salem Fencing asked a few of us to show up. The venue is great, and the next time they have a kids days in the garden, it might be a good demo opportunity. Lists-VACANT: 3 list – heavy defender, in OP order holding field against all fighters. Archery-princess bride oturney – entertaining. 4 rounds each a different format. 10 fighters total Target Archery: This was a great start to archery. We held two official practices. One at our indoor range and one at our outdoor range. Both are in the same location. the location is Stonehenge Farms Stonehenge Farms 9755 Willamette St. Aumsville, OR. 97325, The first practice was nicely attended with nearly 10 archers and several spectators. The second practice was quieter with only 4 archers and one spectator. Loaner equipment was in high use at both practices. There were new archers at each practice and more will be coming. Long and Short also occurred. We have a new archery champion - Lady Johanna, Archos Trewpeny, with a close runner-up in Iurii. The range was quite a busy place all day, despite the heat. There were over 30 archers and spectators throughout the day, and everyone seemed to have a wonderful time. I am happy to have thrown weapons practice at the outdoor range at the same time as archery. If there is interest in this please contact me, (503-798-8492) texting or calling works, as does facebook (Carolyn Wallace).

Equestrian Marshall: Not much to report for this last month. Official equestrian practice was cancelled for June 13th. Practice site change is in consideration at this time. Will the barony approve additional insurance request for the rest of the year? Lack of participants has been due to location (unofficial practice on 6/13/15 yielded 5 horses and 5 riders) I did some minor repairs to the baronial equipment and built some additional equipment prior to Long & Short. Long and Short event for equestrians was a success, we had a challenging course and lots of fun. More advertising next year will hopefully draw additional equestrians. As always, anyone interested in equestrian should contact me. Discussion on getting a second eq ins rider for second practice location.

Youth Combat Marshall-VACANT:
Herald: We have two new registrations: Eiríkr skreyja's coat of arms and Magdelena von Freiberg's household badge. Huzzah huzzah! :D Also, the name and device of Rowan Spirit Walker have entered the system! Good luck to her! Everyone else's submissions are still in process, and I haven't heard any concerns about any of them, so that's a good sign. This month I am presenting a flag to Tassi Hestamaðer in congratulations for her device registration! Also queued up are Milda de Hay and our new Lord Eiríkr, and in the first empty month I get, I'll do Cassandra Deveroux (the winner of the Bar Gemels auction). Still having lots of fun with this. Once I've made enough of them that I feel like I have a really solid system down, I'll write a tutorial article about it for the Privy. Long & Short was the weekend of June 6. Thank you to all who helped with town cries! The field heraldry was simple enough to be a one-person job, but there were willing voices there too if needed, so that was great.. Court was brief and pleasant. Here are the awards and honors given by the hand of Their Alpine Highnesses, both to members of our barony: * Eiríkr skreyja received an Award of Arms. * Tassi Hestamaðer received the Grail of the Summits for martial prowess. And by the hand of our own Baron and Baroness: * Weylyn Middleson's name was added to the roll of Former Defenders of Terra Pomaria. * Leora the Red, his consort, was made a member of the Order of the Iris of Saint Elizabeth. * Iohannes ap Madoc became the newest Defender of Terra Pomaria. * William Cristofore of Devonshire was added to the roll of Former Archer Champions of Terra Pomaria. * Johanna Trewpeny became the newest Archery Champion of Terra Pomaria. * Ulf Wanderer received a Silver Apple. * Gwyneth Blackthorne received a Silver Apple. * Iurii Levchenich passed his Heart of Saint William on to Fidelia Hawkwood. Congratulations to all of these wonderful people! :) All awards have been submitted to the OP. At the business meeting, I will be asking for people's opinions about the length of our courts. I've been given some suggestions from expatriates of other kingdoms about how to tighten them up while still keeping the grandeur, but it would require some changes and some experimentation. Input on this topic would be great! I think that's everything. With Prelude to War cancelled, I don't expect to have anything to report on other than consulting and registrations until November or so. Discussion was had, expressing opinions and alternatives to lengthy courts. Send ideas to herald on how to break up court.

Arts & Sciences: This last month was uneventful for A&S. The monthly A&S was canceled due to it falling on Memorial Day and there being a lack of interest. Also there was a battle bunny class that was scheduled which only myself and Gwenyth, the person running the class, attended. Therefore this class was also canceled.

Chronicler: April and May meeting minutes were posted for review. I received one correction. I will publish Privy later this week.

Grete Boke: No report.

Web Minister: I am updating information on the site as I am told about them. I will be revamping the Populace page over the next few weeks so most of the information that is currently there will be removed and there will be some changes to the information it requests. Please wait until the next business meeting update before submitting your information. Thank you

Chirurgeon-VACANT:

Chatelaine: I hope to fill out the paperwork tonight for my replacement. I've been contacted by 1 newcomer this month.

Caterbury: we have received confirmation of participation in canterbury. There might be a space issue for the fighting demo, but that can be worked around.

Question for tg ed populace: will a tiny Eric do we want a fighting demo? Need a list volunteers ASAP. All volunteers need to be there for a full day minimum. Need stuff to show off. Clothes, a&s, armor bits, stuff to make the area look more period. Need to print brochures/postcards and such. Sent a email request to financial committee involving food. Comic con: I sent another email to figure out reserving a booth...haven't heard back. State fair: from what I've heard...they don't have room for us. I received an email from Karin that explained the many changes to the artisan village, including a location change. She told me who to contact if we want to move forward. Do we want to move forward? No further movement on any other demos. Gold Key: Lots of new donations this month that I'm processing. Thank you Tassi, Her Excellency Ainslie, and whoever donated the blue cotehardie. More work has been done entering items into the database, and the system seems to be working well with Long and Short going smoothly for loaner gear. I'll continue to get accessories and feast gear entered this month with measurements for everything. The database can be found at <https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/11LpThWY0se94JivCtVhT89JcQtXwC4ahBVcMPVGvKd0/pubhtml> I would like to ask for help from the populace next week for a photo shoot of the Gold Key Garb. Kenji and I will be out at Bush Park near the Crooked House Playground at 6:00 Monday the 22nd. If anyone would like to model garb for us for the database, please contact me via e-mail or on Facebook. I would like to have at least one male, one female, and one female plus-sized model, but the more the merrier. Kids welcome, too!

Scribe: Scribal Night was held Wednesday May 20th and was attended by two artisans other than myself. At their Excellencies request 9 charters (3 for each gemstone) have been completed and are in my inventory. I would like to thank Fortune, Aleyna, and Donna Cluster (I didn't catch her SCA name) for their efforts. Scribal night for June will be held Wednesday June 17th from 7-9pm at the Ike Box. This month's event includes an introduction to Calligraphy to be taught by Seamus.

Past Events

Long & Short, June 5-7, 2015: 144 thru gate. Approx $800 profit. Things went well. Final report nxt month.

Upcoming Events

Prelude to War, August 7-9, 2015: Canceled. Do it every other year, opposite of SOK.

Martinmas, November 21, 2015: Tessina Felice Gianfigliazzi has decided that the format for the Rapier Championship will be shark infested waters. Entrants will "walk the plank" and stepping off will equal a loss. Death by sharks. I will be putting together a work day for those interested in a little wood working to make the planks and fins. Radomir Kolekov is testing and finalizing his menu plan. The feast is sounding delightfully tasty. I have acquired the supplies for site tokens and will be starting production this week. I was given leads for alternate event sites but none of them have panned out so I will be giving the site use contract for the Grange hall to the Seneschal this evening at Business Meeting. I will be uploading the spreadsheet of event sites to the Facebook group files section today and also sending it to the Chamberlain. A benefit of research. Demos: Canterbury, confirmed last weekend of July. Eric would have to be put up and down. Do we want to do that? Discussed – lets see how many volunteers we get before deciding. Need volunteers and stuff to show off. Needs to print brochures

NW Comic con- waiting on response for reservations and why a money order.

State Fair – may not have room for us this year. Does the populace want to push ahead? Discussion on how advantageous it is. Went with a no. Discussed doing other fairs.

Old Business

Customary revisions: no update
Kingdom Event Exploratory Committee: no update
Coronets: two bids passed around. Will get them online this week. Vote on it next month, format(s) to be decided.

New Business

Newcomer baldric/tabbard to identify that they have signed waiver and are safe. This will not work in public places but rather private spaces. To help maintain atmosphere and identify those just checking us out. Asking for feedback. Most think it won't be well received. It was suggested that we mark the SCA people we want newcomers to talk to or have a banner to mark site where people are available to talk.

A day in August when we could do all archery. We have the date and site. Peder would like to see it done, but we need a steward. William Cristofore and Brendan Strongbow would like to help. Deadline for bid as a level two event in a weekish, so it can be voted on at next business meeting.

Summits pavilion project. Any Info or comments to Kenji.

Meeting ended: 8:45
