Bear and Apple

Come one, come all to the Barony of Adiantum this October and celebrate the camaraderie of friends!

The leaves are changing colors, and the air is crisp. The bear prepares for the long winter and the ripe apples are ready for harvesting. The Baronies of Adiantum and Terra Pomaria once again welcome you into the Bear and Apple to witness skill, prowess and creativity as championships are challenged. This year, we are privileged to host the Kingdom of An Tir's Heraldic and Scribal Symposium and welcome participants with open arms and a warm hearth.

Nestled away on Pitcher Creek, a stone's throw from the peaceful Row River, Baroun Evan and Baronin Ayla have staged this year's festivities on a quiet manor. They, and Their Cousins Thegn Clovis and Baronessa Ximena of Terra Pomaria, cordially invite all to come and witness five different competitions:

Adiantum Heavy Defender Tournament

Adiantum Thrown Weapons Championship

Adiantum Bardic Championship

Terra Pomaria Rapier Championship

Terra Pomaria Arts & Sciences Championship

Along with these activities, there will be a wealth of classes offered on a wide variety of subjects. Watch this space for further details for classes offered at the Kingdom Heraldic and Scribal Symposium and the Bear and Apple.

Site Fees(per person)

Gate Fee: $25

Full meal plan: $37

Saturday feast only: $15

Bunk in a Cabin: $10

RV space: $10 per space

Golden Apple

This month was the golden arrow tourney for archery. The tournament was set up random target style with each target getting 6 shots with a high score of 30points and an overall high score of 120 for the day.

Although everyone shot well Luther Gutman was able to stave off the completion and shoot the best score.,

August Business Meeting Notes

Agenda for TP Business Meeting
08/19//2019

Attendance: Olaff Beer Gripper, Berangaria De Monfort de Carcossne, Adele Neuton, Rafe Neuton, Kira Neuton, Duncan Mckai, Luther Gutman, Zulaika al Zurkia, Keridwyn, Baronessa Ximena, Stephan the Fat, Kenji, Cormac O'Cathasaigh, Ann Grey, Randall Blackwolf Christmas Carol, Wystan Albrecht, Avery of Hadleah, Duessa of Movilla, Alyna Trepenny, Ulf the Wanderer,

Meeting starts: 7:01pm

Opening words from Their Excellencies:

As many of you have heard, one of the Barony's treasured founding members, Viscount of the Summits, and a Knight of our Kingdom, Sir Dublin O'Guinn Silverwolf, passed away earlier today. Although I was only privileged to meet him a handful of times, the responses to his passing and the happiness with which people have always spoken of him tell me everything I need to know. Sir Dublin specialized in joy, laughter, kindness, humor, and generosity, and it is our hope that we all carry that legacy forward. Whenever you see Dublin's Heart, the Heart of the Barony, being worn by one of your Baronial Coronets, remember that we are a Barony founded on laughter and joy, and that this very special person made sure it happened.

July saw the coronation of Their Majesties, King Morgan of the Oaks and Queen Livia Alexandra Severa. At the end of this month, I will be travelling north with a group of people from TP to the Barony of Lionsgate to witness the Crown tournament choosing Their successors. If you have a passport, the event is only 5 ½ to mumble mumble hours away, depending on traffic, and this would be a great opportunity to support our Kingdom and our cousins to the north!

We had a wonderful time at Sport of Kings last weekend, enjoying the many classes and opportunities for service, and our own Baron Weylyn Middleson received special recognition for his honorable and chivalric conduct on the field. Thegn Clovis was also recognized by the event steward for helping to set up the event site, and his Baronessa is very, very proud of her inspiration.

We have several great eventing opportunities coming up in the next month or two. Next weekend is Corvaria's event,

Murder in the Desert, which looks like a great deal of fun! Although we may not be able to attend, we highly encourage anyone who can to support the event and have what promises to be a crazy good time (check out the event page online for more information about the event).

The event team is gearing up for Long & Short, and you can help! Every event can use many volunteers, and you can get a head start by sharing information about the event on Facebook, or with some of the beautiful fliers that were designed. Have a family member who thinks you're in a cult? Have a curious coworker or a friend who wonders where you are on weekends? Invite them to see who we are and what we do!

Acorn War is coming up in September, and His Alpine Highness approached us asking for as many swords as we can muster. I've heard that the war field is a groomed sports field, and there are activities for all ages and interests. Heed the call of His Highness, and have a great time to boot!

Have you been to the Links section of the Terra Pomaria website? I stumbled upon it earlier and it is a great launchpad for research! There are many links to many different wonderful resources and I know that I'm looking forward to exploring it further.

Finally, you may be seeing some changes involving largesse exchanges over the next few events. The landed Baronial Coronets of the Kingdom have started a conversation about making the largesse exchanges a more informal, outside-of-court thing, involving fewer glimpses of our behinds as we furtively hand each other bags during court. However! We do plan to increase the pageantry around the largesse exchanges that do happen in court and if you have a special gift that would like to present in court, let us know and we will work with you to make it happen.

Officer reports:

Seneschal – zulaika

The month of July was fairly quiet on the Seneschal front.

A contract was signed for using the Oregon Christian Convention Center in Turner for the Summits A&S and Bardic 2020 event headed up by Duessa.

I am arranging a time to meet with Stonehenge Farms to sign a contract to use their site for Long and Short in September.

Heavy Marshal -SEEKING SUCESSOR - Randall

It has been a slow month warm temperatures and being in the event season is drawing numbers down two canceled practices makes for light marshal reports.

No incidents, no accidents.

I am over due for replacement with no current interested parties. In two months I plan to make another trip to the coast to hold a second fighter practice there.

Rapier Marshal – SEEKING SUCCESSOR- Santinus

In the last month we held 2 practices averaging 4 fighter

There are no rule changes that I am aware of. We had a busy month for demos. We had 3 demos with an average of 4 participants at each demo.

Next month at Long and Short there will be a small tournament if I can find a marshal. I will get the format to the event steward in the next week or so. The tournament format for the Baronial Rapier championship at Bear and Apple Tavern has been submitted.

I am still looking for a successor to take over this office.

At long and short there is going to be a heralds point. We'll also need volunteers for tournament, and town cry heralds. There excellencies are planning to do a lot of roving courts, and want these courts to be an opportunity for anyone who wants to try there hand at court heraldry. If you haven't already please reach out to me if you would like to volunteer for any of the heraldic activities for long and short.

At the end of the July business meeting I submitted my quarterly report. Also the privy was emailed to the web minister in the middle of last week.

Grete Boke -Keridwyn

received one box that I'm sorting through

Web Minister -adele

The content on the website is being steadily updated and revised. Award recommendations can finally be submitted online again, since we converted the old web form to a Microsoft form. The new form is a convenient feature included with the Office 365 account, and bypasses the issue of getting Outlook Email accounts to accept messages sent through the server where the website is hosted. It's a relief to have that project checked off the list.

Castilin-Luther

For the month of August I have to report 2 successful demos were held. The first being Canterbury fair which saw hundreds of attendees come through our camp. Much was shared and enjoyed featuring examples of all aspects of SCA life. The second was showcasing for the Shrinners in Wilsonville. This demo featured combat and table displays to introduce the ideals of the SCA to the Shrinners. No new inquiries at this point and nothing else to report.

Gold Key - Alyn

Luther has volunteered to make sure Gold Key is at Long and Short in September, as I will not be there. We will make arrangements for handing off the loaner garb and signout system as we get closer to the event. Otherwise, there is nothing new to report. I am still looking for a successor as my term of office has finished. I am willing to stay in an interim basis until a replacement steps forward. Please contact me if you would like more info on what this job entails.

July Business Meeting Notes

Agenda for TP Business Meeting
07/15//2018

Meeting starts 7:00

Opening words from Their Excellencies:

Hello, Terra Pomaria! We've had an eventful month, with His Excellency attending the elevation of TE Stromgard at Grand Thing, Her Excellency attending June Investiture for HAH Antoine and HAH Kathren, and then attending An Tir West War. Our deepest thanks and gratitude to those who acted as our retinue and made sure that we took care of ourselves; we truly have the best populace in An Tir.

A quick touch on some less-fun topics. First, if you see or experience harassment or bullying at an event, please immediately notify someone in charge, such as the event steward or the seneschal. If you feel unable to advocate for yourself (previous traumatic experiences, anxiety, whatever the case), please feel free to approach Thegn Clovis or Baronesa Ximena, and we will advocate for you whenever possible. We in Terra Pomaria and in An Tir take the safety and well-being of our populace at events and wherever else we have authority very seriously. Baronesa Ximena has asked our Web Minister to add a link to the An Tir bullying/harassment policy to the website (should be going up in the next few days).

Second, a quick reminder that the Terra Pomaria baronial encampment is family-friendly, and our expectation is that anyone camping with us will behave accordingly. If you need a guideline, ask yourself "is this something that the Baronesa will want to explain to her precocious preteen daughter?" Third, while Facebook is a blessing in many ways, it also has definite drawbacks. When posting or commenting in the Terra Pomaria group or page, remember that we are, again, a family-friendly page, which in this context includes things like "be nice to each other" and "don't post about things that wouldn't be discussed openly in front of kids." A lot of bad will is floating around in the world right now, and it can be hard to remember that the person on the other end of the screen is indeed a person, but we expect everyone to make that effort. We are not asking people to ignore or sweep-under-the-rug, by any means, just to respond with respect for a person's humanity, even when you disagree with their opinions or beliefs. If you wish to continue the conversation elsewhere without worrying about that, go for it.

Investiture report:

--September Coronet format has been announced: bring your best, best two out of three every round, and using a great sword for the final round. Models will be available at multiple events for comparison and planning purposes, and Sir Sverre said that he has resources available and spoke of possibly having a couple Knights' Roadshows to help prepare.

--HAH Alpine Antoine would like to have March Coronet no longer be scheduled against Gulf Wars and would like to have June Investiture be moved to the 2nd to last weekend in June, rather than being tied to the solstice (there will be clarification on what "weekend" specifically means in this context).

--Summits is hoping to add banners for Three Mountains, Stromgard, and Dragon's Mist, as they frequently attend Summits events. Also, they hope to have travel thrones with switchable backs made for visiting royals who might not have been able to bring their own thrones.

--Please remain diligent in getting your quarterly reports done on time! Terra Pomaria leads the Principality in many things, and it would be wonderful if reports were one of them. This helps the Principality and Kingdom officers spend more time with the fun parts of their job, rather than chasing us around. I am happy to help program reminders into phones or add them to calendars!

--There will be a Hunter championship (thrown weapons) added to the Captain of Eagles tournament. Pageantry is being greatly encouraged at the Captain of Cats tournament! Has the Terra Pomaria arms badge for the new Captain of Cats cloak been submitted?

--Mountain's Edge has asked for help from archery/thrown weapons marshals at Acorn War. They also really like having help in general, as do we all!

--Viscountess Temperence Trewelove is hoping to move The Echoes to more of an Arts & Sciences magazine with opportunities for citizen journalism. If you are interested, please contact her!

Kingdom reminder! The picnic basket fundraiser at July Coronation, with all proceeds going to support suicide prevention awareness, is still up and running. If you are going to July Coronation, or want to surprise a friend, take advantage of this great opportunity to get a marvelous picnic and support a good cause.

Long & Short is approaching and your baronial coronets need award recommendations! We've received a few verbal recommendations, but we really need to get them in writing so you have the opportunity to tell us all of the wonderful things the person has done, and we have the opportunity to remember them!

Silver Pillar recommendations are also currently being accepted. Thegn Clovis has posted guidelines for the process in the Terra Pomaria group, and both Their Excellencies are happy to answer questions.

We are still looking for bids for the new Youth Archery and Thrown Weapons Championships. If you have an idea, we would love to hear it.

And last but not least! We have several officers seeking replacements and several open offices! If you are interested in a position, please feel free to ask the officer, the seneschal, or Ourselves any questions you might have. Many hands make light work, and service in the Society can look wonderful on a modern resume

Seneschal – zulaika

First off, the elephant in the room. We have been notified of undesirable behavior exhibited by one of our local members who has been inactive for several years directed at several people, including other members of our Barony. Both parties have been communicated with and the situation is being handled by myself, Their Excellencies, and Summits Seneschal.

Another aspect of the situation was certain verbiage used on post to the Barony's Facebook page. I have since made a post on the page regarding expected proper behavior for posts on any page with the Barony's name associated with it.

We have received a bid for Bar Gemels 2020, I would like to remind folks that the bids session will close at the September Business Meeting, with bid presentations and voting occurring at that meeting.

no accidents no injuries to report

Rapier Marsha -Santinu s

This month we had 3 practices averaging 5 fighter. Attached to this report the waiver of consent for Alex Earhart which is required as a minor.

There were no accidents or equipment failures this month.

We had fencing at two demonstrations last month which I did not receive reports for. I would like to find a deputy or someone to take over the office for me since I have held the position for more than 4 years.

2nd quarter report sent out today also.

Lists Ministe Pede

Target Archery Marshal – Duncan

Archery and Thrown Weapons practice is going really well. We are averaging 15-30 folks every week including children. In fact last practice we had at least 15 children out of the 25 folks that were there.

I think the new Children's Archery Championship is going to be very well attended at long & Short this year and I am excited about that. Thank you to ALL the parents that bring your kids out each week!!!!

Luther and I have been discussing making new thrown weapons stands as our current set is getting a lot of use and are getting beat up. I also need to find out if I can use Baronial funds to repair personal thrown weapons gear that is used mainly as loaner gear for both adults and children. If not, that is OK, I will still continue to provide this as a service to the Barony.

There are no Baronial events that I am required to be at this month.

Equestrian Marsha Tassi-

We have had two practices since the last business meeting. 6/29 practice hosted 7 participants (6 riders/one spectator) with two new participants from Dragon's Lair! The 7/14/19 practice hosted 9 participants (8 riders and 1 spectator). The 7/14/19 practice was a combined equestrian games and rossefecten practice. We had a participant from the Canton of Kaldorness (St. Helens) and two participants from Adiantum. No injuries or unplanned ground testing occurred, which was nice. Next practice is scheduled for 8/4/19. As our group continues to gain momentum with numbers of horses being hauled in, it is very important for those wishing to attend practice with or WITHOUT horses to please let me know you are coming. Parking space is limited (however there is a church close by for parking) and what I really do not want to have to do is turn anyone away from participating due to lack of space or planning. I very much appreciate those who have let me know they are coming or are coming late! Thank you again!

Tassi

End report

Other information:

We did take some video, however, I have not yet received the information from those who took video, but when received, I will do a web wide search of other appropriate video and seek permission and then work to create a promotional video. There are some aspects that we cannot capture at practice, which has been captured elsewhere (like jousting) and the super cool pageantry.

Also, I have just received Ken's contact number (Macha's husband) to ask permission to host a some type of equestrian event in her name at Long & Short this year. I am waiting to see if we are able to write equestrian into the L&S contract and if I should move forward with planning? I see key concerns of getting the word out ASAP for folks to attend and time for me to get this out in the equestrian community. As this event is being done as a demo, would it be admission free for spectators?

This past month has been quiet. I enjoyed the Office 365 Training event on June 17 and was able to resolve some questions I had about the email account. Was able to add the official web minister badge to the account, which makes me happy every time I see it! Her Excellency, the Baronessa, has been going over the content on the website and will be sending me her revisions when she has time. Some of the content has become dated over the years and she has a sharp eye for technical and legal details.

Castilin-Luther

For the month of July I have to report 2 amazing demos were conducted in the spirit of education and recruitment. The first was a YMCA which hosted 50 kids from the camp. The Second was Sheridan American Legion. A head count shows 80 attendants came through to partake in the demo. Both events featured fighting for both heavy and rapier along with a host of hands on activities such as heraldry and garb. Much excitement and interest was generated. I also wish to pass a reminder that on July 27-28th will be the Canterbury demo.

Site has been verbally secured for one day for $250. I'm hoping to hear back by monday from Ace to add 1 large portapot and 1 regular porta pot for a total of 3 portapots on site for the event (one is already on site).
With a site picked, fancy words will soon be sent out, and preparations shall be made for the event proper.
I need to make an event page and will be reaching out to the web minister to have information added asap.
I would like to discuss the possibility of early set up of some tents at Stonehenge Friday evening, so Saturday morning can progress slightly more organically, in proper SCA time.
There is a veritable muck-cart of stuff to do, and but a single day to do it. Who's idea was it to run this as a single day event?
I could use help in these areas
Merchant Coordination - Hightower games/ coffee house has mentioned wanting to vend snacks and drinks at our site, likewise there are potters from the Mt Edge, Non-SCAdian jewelers from Salem, and any number of others that might be interested in a free event to vend at.
Public Outreach - Part of the goal of the event was to keep costs non-existent so we can invite the locals to attend. To that end, I need someone that can design a 8x11 flier, and once printed, post at various places around salem -- such as Canterbury fair! going to work on fancy words for the people

The Privy is available for FREE, and can be obtained at <http://terrapomaria.antir.sca.org/newsletter.htm>

Submissions guidelines: If you wish to submit articles or notices, they are welcomed and will be published as space permits. Please understand that all submissions are subject to formatting and spelling adjustments. The chronicler reserves the right to edit any submissions for inappropriate content and may make changes to the final copy to ensure entries meet all guidelines for acceptability. Submission deadline for the upcoming month's Privy is by business meeting of that month if a digital copy is provided. Hard copies will be considered and included as time allows.
