Business Meeting Notes January 2020

Attendance: Olaff Beer Gripper, Raven Spirit Walker, Kenji, Duncan McKai, Milda D' Hay, Ximena, Clovis, Pauleena Williams, Stephan the Fat, Wylan Albryght, Duessa of Movilla, Ulf the Wanderer, Rafe Neuton, Adele Neuton, Cormac O' Cathasaigh, Aurelia De La Mer, Randall Blackwolf, Raven Devereux, Keridwyn, Alyn Trewpenny

Meeting starts: 701

Opening words from Their Excellencies:

It has been a tough month for many of us in our modern lives over the past month, and we would like to encourage everyone to be kind to themselves and others, and to look for joy where it can be found, whether in celebrations, the company of friends and family, or quiet reflection.

We were unable to attend Summits 11th Night, but it looks like those who attended had a rollicking good time and it was a great event. We look forward to having Prince Kenric and Princess Dagmar visit our lands and learn to love the people of Terra Pomaria as we do! HL Ulf the Wanderer presented a stunning kneeling bench to Their Royal Majesties to much acclaim, and we are proud to recognize such a talented artisan in our Barony!

Our coronets are with Master Sigmund for their periodic leather fix. We hope to bring forward a proposal for a more permanent fix, to be voted on by the baronial council, as these are the Barony's coronets and not our own.

Thegn Clovis has scoped out a possible event site about a half mile outside of our northern boundary. It is a large grass field and is nicely located for a large event. We also checked out a possible alternative business meeting site. It was a lovely location, but can only hold 25-30 people, and so may be best suited to some of our smaller, winter meetings.

In July, nine of us from Terra Pomaria will be invadi....visiting the Kingdom of Drachenwald for the creation of the Barony of Eplaheimr! What better excuse for international travel with friends than an SCA event! We plan to take gifts of largesse, and Her Excellency Lindis has volunteered to coordinate that for us. If you are interested in donating, please contact ourselves or HE Lindis.

We hope that the holidays bring warmth and light to you all (despite the freezing temperatures), and, as always, we look forward to seeing everyone soon!

YAFA first. We made $219 with the Assassins guild at 12th night. the king and queen were taken out by their own kids, and I got King Christian after I took my oath as a kingdom officer, he laughed he knew I was going to do it he thought it was hilarious. It was great. Many many requests have been made to do it more bigger and more often. So, we will be doing it again. Also, Fortune is "thinking" about possibly taking over as my successor.

Background checks, process has not changed any rumors you heard are false. Also paperwork questions, see me or ulf we will help you we want to hand out badges we know kids have done stuff we haven't handed out stuff in a while.

i have a map i am going to make copies of of the grounds and send to our website so it's kept on file.

Also I have been working on the kingdom calendar for Bar gemels. I do not like that thing at all. NOT AT ALL. it's difficult. I'm going to ask Maeve if she can help me with it she is a master at it.

site tokens, we will be having a stuffing party probably the weekend before A&S Stephan is making soap wooo hoo. I'm finishing bags which won't take very long to do. and then for bar gemels we need draw strings crocheted. any color you want to make them. I have the baggies already done.

I also have talked to Kate about the skirted/bar wench brawl at bar gemels and received feedback. The name henceforth she would like to be the yaegar Sumpface Skirted Brawl Tourney. So far everyone I've been able to ask about it either went huh or said ok and giggled. I need to purchase more materials to make more weapons we currently have I believe Attached is last quarters attendance. We had several off holidays nights last month but things are starting to pick up.

No injuries, no armor/weapon failures no personal conflicts.

A new ABCs has been released several rules have changed. If you fight please take some time to fill your self in on these new changes.

Last weekend I cut out two blanks for loaner shields soon a kite shield and a heater will be available. And I think I have a bit left over for a buckler.

Tourney season is on the door step please get with me if you need updated authorizations. I updated two this month.

I still seek replacement but am still available to hold the office till a replacement can be found.

Rapier Marshal – Kenji

Practices continue with a steady turnout of fighters. My paperwork for Senior Marshal is in process. I have also had a few interested parties in youth Rapier so I am looking into it and also looking into obtaining equipment for the Barony.

Nothing reported

Target Archery Marshal SEEKING SUCESSOR – Duncan

Archery hasn't had a lot of activity lately because of weather and sickness.

we have been averaging about 7-8 people per practice.

My term of office is up in February 2020 (next month) and I have been contacted by one candidate to take over the office. So with that, I would like to open the Office of

January Business Meeting Notes

Archery and Thrown Weapons Marshal for the Barony.

Equestrian Marshal – Tassi

As you can see, I am still emailing from my personal email account. I for some reason continue to struggle with 365. I am going to contact our webminister to figure it out. My apologies.

Nothing much to report. Practice in December was cancelled (no one attending) and we have no practices scheduled in January or ongoing. I am in the process of working up our practice calendar to propose to the practice site owner, however, due to weather and lack of indoor arena, practices likely will not start up until March.

I also recently noticed the insurance request for Long and Short didn't make it out of my inbox. I do not know if that is too late to submit or not? (facepalm-really?)

Fourth quarter report will be sent out shortly, as I am working on it now to make the 15th due date.

On a side note, I would like to see if my deputy is able to attend business meetings for me. I am considering trying a "new" thing which requires weekly dedication to Monday evenings (really??? How is Monday the POPULAR day?? Lol!) I believe this would be a commitment from now through likely October with possible breaks which would allow me to attend business meetings. I would, for the most part, be able to run practices etc. In all actuality, I am still considering this, as it is a pretty big commitment, and I am committed here as well. It may not be an option, as I may not be chosen for the team, however, with the absolute crushingly horrible year I had last year, I am in the "try new things" and better or try to fix yourself kind of thought process. And yes, this is an equine venture. The horses haven't killed me just yet....but they dang sure tried....

The winter months have proven to be a quiet time for the website. We had a few minor updates for upcoming events, and Her Excellency, the Baroness, has continued to supply monthly blog-style posts. She's dedicated to creating a written account of the various news and events around the Barony, and I'm excited to see this continue forward as a way of preserving our history in an ongoing chronicle.

Castilin-Luther

For the month of January I have little to report. I am still unable to access my email, and have been in contact with our web minister to sort the issue out. Chelidh was held attended by 14 members. The planned events did not partake due to 1) only officers attending and 2) recent 12th night. February Chelidh is in the planning stages and will be announced soon. 2.the food at Bar Gemels is being handled by Dutchess Zanobia and Angus Tyrrson. If you don't know who they are, stop by the kitchen at A&S, he is a professional chef by trade, and she has worked in the Bar Gemels Kitchen in the past. It's all good, they are doing all the meals so there's no switch off of finding different people to do different things. Just needed to know better numbers for better planning. The King and Queen are not planning on attending so I need better estimates on numbers to give them for food planning.

Bids for New Coronets Nothings wrong with them but during hot days the glue seperates and we keep having to temp fix them or a more permanent solution to the problem to fic them its roughly 50$ each time(NO VOTE) to glue it about 300 to have a more permanent stitch in that would require cosmetic changes (drilling into the coronet)(NOO VOTE well raven voted so it wasnt lonely) option 3 is 600 more permanent framing built into the coronet that would only require the leather banding to be replaced once every 5 to 10 years(Majority Votes for option 3) Wystan has agreed that budget wise we have the funds to cover the costs

Gingerbread building was a great success. Baking gingerbread is part of Yafa tokens cooking and architecture. If you did it at home or at Ceilidh please pull the worksheet forms and let me know. Also, Christmas gift wrapping is a form of origami believe it or not and is part of papermaking and book making. Also most of our Christmas, Yule, Hanukkah and other winter holiday traditions are not new, most are medieval or pre-medieval in timeperiod. So as your decorating trees, hanging wreaths or holly or even mistletoe, and playing games think about where or when the traditions came from. Did you know that the reason we hang lights on trees comes from Martin Luther? When walking through the woods one winter he looked up through the trees and saw the stars and he thought he would like to bring the stars inside and hang them on the winter solstice tree for his wife and children. So, he put lit candles on the tree so they could see the stars at night as he did walking through the forest. That's Martin Luther, the monk who rebelled against the Catholic church in the 1600's.

Don't forget for A&S we want to have a display of everything the kids have done over the past however long. Pictures of what they've worked on, things they've made stuff they've done. Please bring it. We want to share.

Summits A&S

Right now planning for the event is going smoothly. We had a site walk through in the kitchen and identified a couple of issues, which are being taken care of. They were safety issues such as the fire marshal signs needed to be put up (they were removed when they painted the building) and the safety latch in the walk in cooler needs to be repaired. The site and stated everything is being fixed and will be done by the end of this month.

Next is a walk through to count beds in cabins and match up people to spots. That will happen in January. I will figure out what date in the next two weeks.

We need a gate captain ASAP so we can do pre-registration and so we can also request through Kingdom/Corp accepting credit cards at gate. Without a gate captain we can't do paypal pre-reg or credit card on site.

People have asked for classes, and classes are now being scheduled. We have a request to do a small version of a how to do documentation class which will be approximately 2 hours and there has been a LOT of interest for that through the kingdom. That is being added to our schedule. Stephen has volunteered to be our class coordinator.

The only other position other than gate captain that is needed at this time is someone to head up site clean up. I need one person who is charge of making sure everything is done at the end of the day. And that's it.

Oh and the In N Out is officially open. It's about 25 to 30 minutes approximately from site, so that's a thing now too apparently requested to make sure we make people know about on all our communications OUT so people outside of TP know that hey guess what we have.

In January we need to have an event meeting face to face with everyone that is doing a thing.
