Known World Colegio de Iberia, June 4-6

The Known World Colegio de Iberia sponsored by the West Kingdom will be held over the first weekend of June 2021.

This is a weekend of virtual classes on the lives and times of the people who dwelt in the lands which we now call Spain and Portugal. The symposium covers the period from the Muslim Umayyad Conquest, and includes the great Muslim city-states and the four Christian kingdoms (Kingdom of Castile y Leon, Kingdom of Aragon, Kingdom of Navarre and Kingdom of Portugal), ending with death of the Habsburg king Philip II. We also explore some of the worlds who experienced colonization by these kingdoms.

Classes will be recorded where possible and will be uploaded to our YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC2RmLGxKiNzoFiM6GAu5H>

There is a Facebook group that focuses on the culture of the Iberian peninsular called SCA Iberia (Spain and Portugal). Please come and join the community!

Pop-Up Bar Gamels

A “pop-up” Bar Gamels virtual event was held on Saturday, May 1st, at 6:00pm. It was great to see everyone on the Zoom call.

The evening court began with a video of a previous processional into a Bar Gamels court and singing “happy birthday” to HL Kenji Morikawa Katashige.

Baronesa Ximena made a presentation of the Baronesa’s Favor to many of the youth of Terra Pomaria. The favor includes an oak leaf to represent endurance. She recognized that kids don’t have much of a choice about what goes on in the world or their family’s life. Everyone has been going through a very hard time this year, but the youth of Terra Pomaria have stayed strong. And she is looking forward to seeing them all in person again soon.

Any youth that did not receive a Baronesa’s Favor should get one at future event. Please contact Baronesa Ximena and let her know your child, 18 and under, should be added to the next recipient list.

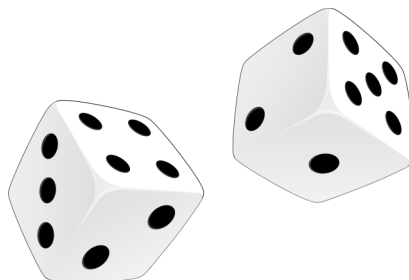

All attendees were then asked to draw our hearts toward Countess Berengaria de Montfort de Carcassonne who has been enduring significant personal challenges over the past year. Thegn Clovis and Baronesa Ximena explained that Bera is a very important part of our Barony, the Principality, and the Kingdom of An Tir, and has been for many years. She was always willing to volunteer as an officer when needed, and had the best of well meaning in her heart when aiding and advising others in their diverse roles. Bera also demonstrated how to be a good Countess. They presented her with a combined Baron’s and Baronesa’s Favor as recognition from the Barony for all that she has done.

Bera’s husband, Master Alail Horsefriend was very appreciative and assured everyone that Bera knows about the favor and how much people are thinking of her.

Court ended at 6:23pm.

Family Activities Corner

Hello! This month we are going to concentrate on games, and of course there are prizes!!!! I've included two boards and the instructions for both games. You can either print off the boards or draw them yourself since they are very simple games. The first game is modernly called ROTA. It is the Roman version of Tic-Tac-Toe. It has a simple goal - to get three tokens in a row, but it's not as simple as it seems! The other game I have provided is Nine Men's Morris. This is a very popular game in the SCA, and has almost been continuously played in Europe for over a thousand years. Since both games have been around for so long, there are many different versions of the rules. I've written up the most common rules for each, but if you wish to play by your own house rules, that is up to you. Just remember to vocalize those rules to your opponent and make sure you are both playing by the same rules. The time to discover you are not is NOT while you are playing the games themselves!

Now to the important part. You all want to know how to win prizes, right? There will be two prizes for each game. One for adults, and one for kids. All you need to do is email me how many games you win for each game by July 1st. For families with more than one player it can all be in one email. Just send a list! Make sure you send a list of everyone that played - you never know when there might be extra prizes! I have lots and lots of neat stuff!

Yours in Service, HL Fortune verch Thomas, TerraPomaria.YAFA@antir.org

Games and rules found on Pages 9 -11

Family Activities Corner

ROTA Instructions

This is a 2-player game.

Each player needs 3 tokens (stones, buttons, coins, etc.). Each players' tokens need to look different than the others'.

You will also need a printed copy of the board or your own hand-drawn version.

Each player can place 1 token on any of the open spots on the board every turn. The open spots are any place with the lines intersect or meet and are marked by a white circle.

After all pieces are on the board the players then move 1 piece per turn. The pieces can move one space along the lines. The pieces do not jump other pieces. A piece can only occupy the center spot for one turn.

The goal of the game is to get 3 pieces in a row either around the edge or through the center.

There are two other variations for winning. Variation #1 ONLY counts 3 in a row around the outside ring as a win, and Variation #2 states that 3 in a row MUST include the center space.

Nine Men's Morris Instructions

This is a 2-player game.

Each player has 9 tokens (stones, buttons, coins, etc.). Each players' tokens need to look different than the others.

You will also need a printed copy of the board, or your own hand-drawn version.

Each player is trying to form a "mil." A mil is three tokens in a row along the lines, but not around a corner. They must be connected by a line.

The game begins by each player taking turns placing 1 token at a time onto the board. The tokens must be placed on an empty dot. The strategy is to try and prevent your opponent from forming a mil, but if a mill is formed that player can take 1 of the opponents tokens off the board. The token that is taken cannot be in a mil. If all the opponents tokens are in a mil, then no token can be taken. It is possible to make more than one mil at a time with strategic token placement. You remove the same number of tokens as the number of mills created that turn.

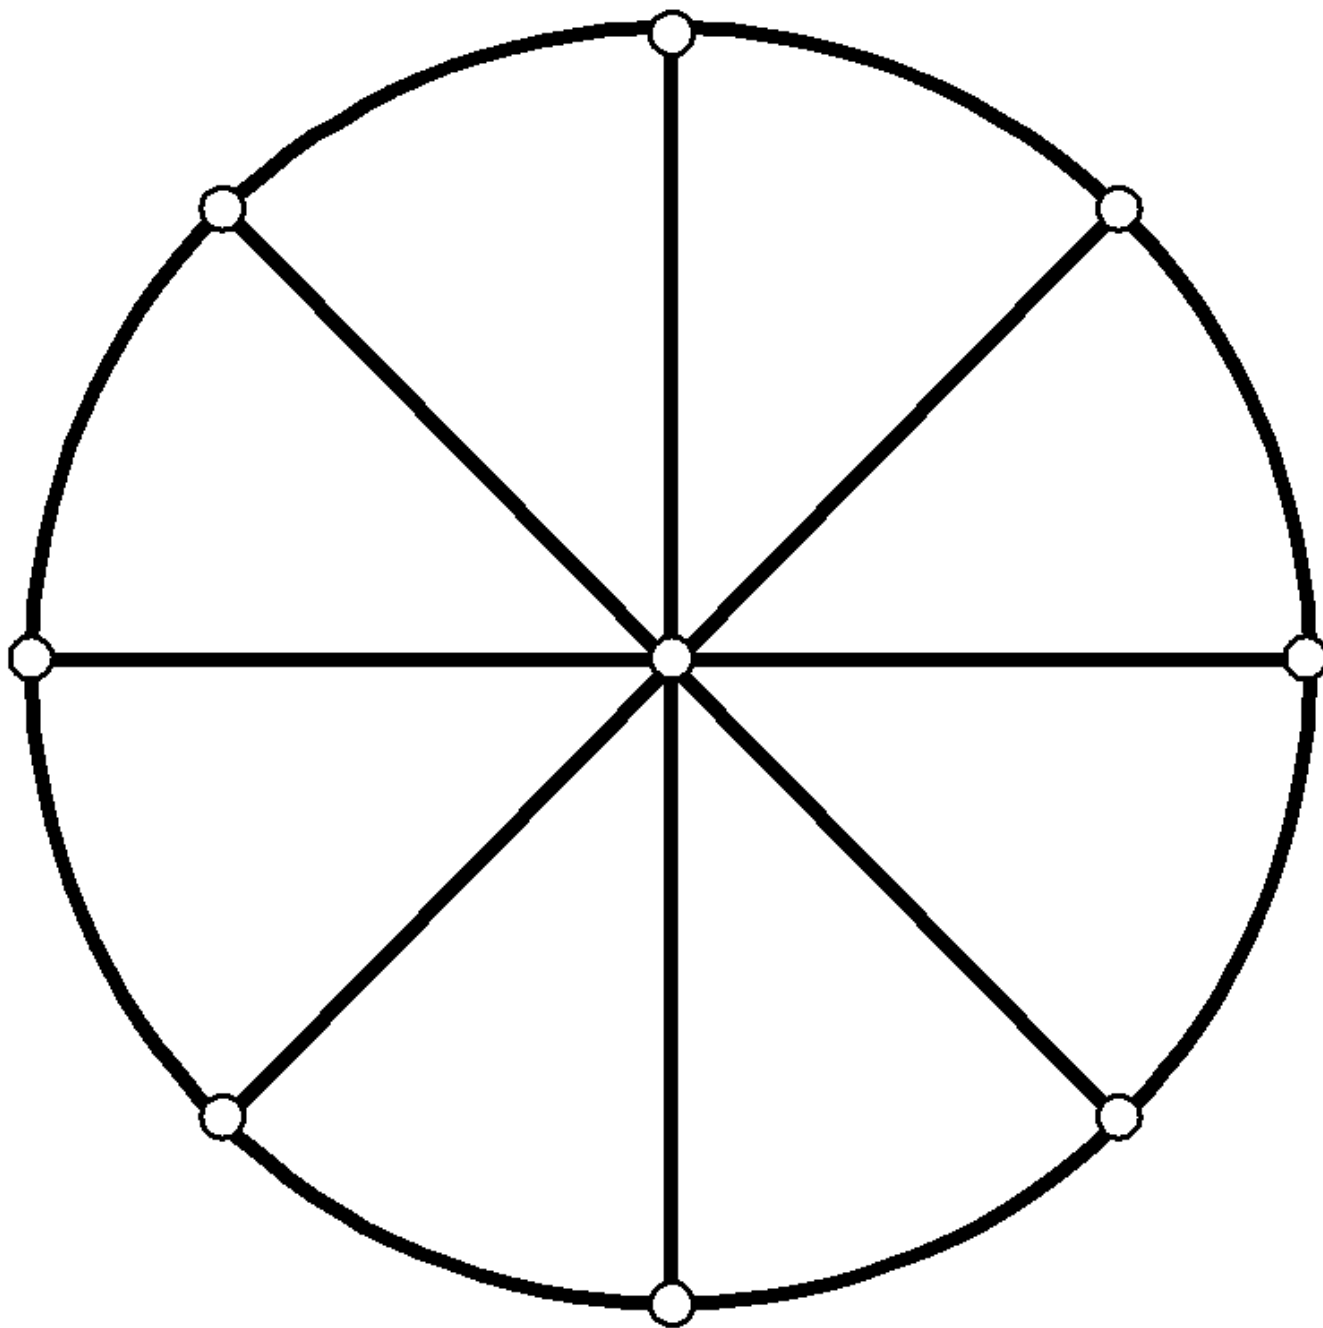

After all the pieces have been played, each player then begins to move their pieces, 1 per turn around the board. You can only move your piece along the lines from one dot to another. They cannot jump over each other. The goal is still to form mills and remove your opponent's pieces. A piece can be moved out of a mil on one turn and back into that mil the next turn. This counts as a new mil.

The game ends when one player has only 2 tokens left. The player with the most tokens then wins!

"Greetings,

"Plague, fire, and smoke. We survive! Huzzah!

"In case you have not heard, Kingdom has banned in-person eventing till after January. Thus, no fighter practice. No accidents to report. No armor/ weapon failures. No personality issues to report. That does not mean we haven't been busy.

"The armory got packed up by the Coronets to avoid loss by the encroaching forest fires and are now in Baronial storage. Some items are with me; I have two things (helm and shield) to paint now that the smoke has cleared, and a tote of miscellaneous armor bits in need of repair, along with the regalia.

Roland be updated before being considered. Barring strong objection from KEM or Summits Eral Marshal, it is our intention to have a polling to install Ruland as Heavy Marshal at our next business meeting on Monday the 21st of September. With the understanding that Sir Ruland will work with KEM and Summits EM to meet the requirements of being SR Marshal when the KEM has received permission to implements a solution for SR Marshal authorizations. With the understanding, after the restrictions barring practices are lifted, Ruland will not host practices without proper Marshal Supervision until receiving his Marshal Authorization.

"Our friend Sir Einar has offered to assist Ruland in meeting the qualifications of his SR Marshal Authorization when we are able to do so.

"Thank you for all for your hard work during these difficult times and your understanding.

"Your Humble Servant, Thegn Clovis de Walton, Terra Pomaria"

• Sir Ruland's letter of intent:

"Greetings unto their Excellencies of Terra Pomaria, Thegn Clovis & Baronesa Ximena. Likewise, salutations unto the Noble Lady Zulaikha al-Zarqa, Seneschal of Terra

Pomaria

"I, Ritter Ruland von Bern, do send this missive to declare my intent and desire to fulfill the duties and obligations of the Office of Heavy Marshal for the Barony upon the retirement of Lord Randall Blackwolf. I submit my qualifications for the position as I am familiar with

SCA heavy combat as a Knight of the Kingdom of An Tir and the Society. In the past I have fulfilled the duties of the Baronial Heavy Marshal and I am familiar with the responsibilities of the officer position. I have served the Kingdom and the Barony in many capacities in the past; as Baron of these great lands, and as the Heavy Champion three times, as the Summits Defender, Marshal in charge of many baronial events including an An Tir Crown Tournament held here in Terra Pomeria, and many other capacities. I have re-familiarized myself with the An Tir Book of Combat and the changes that have been made since my last sustained participation in the Society. I am no longer a Sr. Marshal, however once practices and in-person gatherings resume, I will be able to obtain that certification in short order. I shall be glad if it is your pleasure to appoint me to the office.

"Yours in Service to the Crown and Coronet,

"Ritter Ruland von Bern, Baron of the Court of An Tir"

• I am sure that he will be a great Baronial Marshal. He is more trained in combat and teaching stick than myself, and also has more tournament experience. I fully support this decision and will ensure we get his SR Marshal out of the way ASAP. I will be around and will continue to support the Baronial fighting community.

• That is all for this month, and look - blue, sunny skies. I am well overdue for replacement but no one has stepped forward to relieve this position. I will continue to hold the post as there truly no requirements

- Does Terra Pomaria have a Twitter or Instagram account? Bera doesn't remember passwords, and previously to my stepping in I wasn't aware if we had accounts. If so, I'd like to gain access to them and get those updated.
