Michaelmas by HE Anna

Here is another of the seasonal holidays that Anna would have celebrated and I wanted to share with you.

Michaelmas is one of the biggest days of the year for our family. By late September, the fields are empty, and the harvest has been gathered. This feast marks the close of the busy season and the start of colder days ahead. It is also the time when rents are paid and new agreements are made, so there is both celebration and serious business. We prepare for it carefully, knowing it ties together our work, our food, and our community.

The morning begins with a visit to the parish church, where everyone in the village gathers. The service honors St. Michael the archangel, who is remembered as a strong protector. While the priest speaks of angels and battles against darkness, we think mostly of the turning season and the need for strength to face the winter. The church is filled with autumn flowers, grain, and small gifts from the harvest, a reminder of what the land has given us.

When we return home, the real feast begins. A goose has been fattened for weeks just for this day. My mother roasts it slowly over the fire while bread from the new grain bakes in the oven. Carrots, cabbages, and other late vegetables are pulled from the garden to fill the table. Sharing this meal feels like a reward for all the hard work of the harvest. Some say eating goose on Michaelmas brings good fortune for the year ahead, and we are happy to believe it as we pass the meat and bread around.

In the afternoon, we join the crowds at the Michaelmas fair. There are animals for sale, cloth and tools from merchants, and music in the streets. For us children, the fair is the best part of the day—sweet cakes, the noise of fiddles, and the excitement of the crowd. It is one of the rare times when the whole community comes together in celebration.

By evening, we return home tired but satisfied. Michaelmas has given us a chance to rest from our labor, share a fine meal, and take part in the life of our village. It is a day that reminds us of the rhythm of the year: planting, growing, harvesting, and now preparing for winter. As the last light fades, we feel grateful for full barns, full bellies, and the company of neighbors and kin. Tomorrow the long months of winter work begin, but tonight we enjoy the peace that Michaelmas brings.

In service to the dream,
Baroness Anna

Seneschal – Christmas Caryl (10/23-10/25)

Discussed the state of the Barony and thanked the officers and populace for their hard work.

Exchequer – Lord Luther Gütman – (7/25-7/27) - contingency Melannei

For the month of August, the Account balance is $11,784.89 and the Ledger balance is $10,962.27. The difference is accounted for with outstanding checks that have not been cashed yet. Last month the Finance committee meet and agreed upon the comp list for long and short and at this time there are no outstanding request.

Long and Short deposits have been completed, NRM check sent out to kingdom and post event paperwork is most completed. I have just been informed that the Hydrations team has some outstanding cost and I am currently awaiting receipts for reimbursement.

I am waiting for some receipts for the hydration station

Thank you to Melannei for her help during this change

There is a report of possible mice presence in the baronial shed. I am in contact with the appropriate parties to get this managed.

Chamberlain– Lady Aurelia de le Mer (11/19-11/21)

In this last month, the Barony hosted the Long and Short of it where we saw the changeover of 4 champions. Paperwork was filled out for the regalia changeover for all 4 champions.

Baronial gear was used for this event, and returned to the storage shed afterwards. Nothing new was reported missing, and the only thing reported broken was one of the ropes for the Baronial Pavillion.

Normal breakdown of the ropes was noted, and I would recommend planning to replace the rope before too many of them break on us during an event.

I would also recommend adding two new water coolers to the baronial stash. We currently have one in good shape, and one that leaks. I would like to replace the leaky one and add one additional one to the inventory. As the weather continues to be very warm at events, this would allow us to be able to dedicate one to the fighting area, one to archery, and an additional one to add to a third space. I plan to price them out, and put in a request to the financial committee during this next month.

Aug Business Meeting Notes

Another thing to note, while in the storage unit, we noticed some signs of rodent activity. Nothing seems to have been damaged so far, but it should be discussed with the storage facility, and we should keep an eye on our supplies in there.

Adele also reported some damage to the Gate popup

Social Media – Elizabeth Neuton – (1/25-1/27)

It's been a quiet month.

I posted the July Privy to Facebook.

Heavy Marshal – Lord Bjorn of Ulster (3/24-26)

Practice has been happening
We are looking for a Deputy for this position

Rapier Marshal – Lord Levi von Strausberg (10/21-10/23)

Everything has been good. We had some attendance, but it has been low. We will be moving back to Aumsville in Sept.

Target Archery Marshal – Master Otto Gottlieb (3/24-26)

Archery and thrown weapons continue on Tuesday evenings. Attendance has been as follows:

5/20: 7 *Golden Arrow Shoot-Otto won.

5/27: 13

6/3: 11

6/10: 9

6/17: 11

6/24: 10

7/1: Cancelled due to majority at AWW

7/8: 19

7/15: 8

7/22: 18 *Golden Arrow Shoot - Lady Elovel won (can't seem to find the picture. Dang it.)

7/29: 10

8/3: Clean-up day at Stonehenge Farm. We cleaned up the marshal's stall and setup one of the archery nets:

8/5: 16

8/9: Captain of Eagles - Winner: Brother William, THL Rafe is runner-up, TP Youth Championship - Winner: m'Lady Emma, Amelia is runner-up , TP Adult Championship - Winner: m'Lord Brother Rinkle, Archos Otto is runner-up.

8/12: Too dang hot at 94! Cancelled practice.

8/18: Archery & thrown weapons is scheduled. We put our order in for a comfortable 79 degrees.

Also of special note, Lady Elovel earned her senior archery marshal authorization in July. It's great to have another senior archery marshal!

Equestrian Marshal – HL Tassi – (2010-2022)

Not much to report!

Long & Short equestrian was fun-no issues that I am aware of other than one loose horse that was caught fairly quickly.

Aug Business Meeting Notes

Last practice was 7/12 with 3 riders and 4 participants total. 7/26 practice was cancelled due to conflict.

Next practice MIGHT be 8/23. I accidentally wrote 8/22 down which is a Friday. I have an email to the sca insurance folks inquiring...as the practice insurance rider has changed and dates are not listed. Hopefully receive and answer soon! Otherwise, next practice will be 9/6!

Lists Minister – Alyna Trewpeny (9/24-9/26).

We had an event with tournaments and new champions

I was well assisted by Cormac another gentleman to ensure everything was covered.

Youth Armored Combat – OPEN

Herald – HE Ximena - (3/25-3/27)

Greetings! Heralding activity occurred at Long & Short and the OP update has been emailed to Dexter Gauntlet. Bleu Grael Herald is offering office hours and additional support, but I haven't been able to make any of those as of yet.

Arts and Sciences Agatha/Sunna – (3/24 - 3/26)

When does your branch meet? (online meet-ups count): Once a month on a Sunday afternoon, and at TP events.

What have you done in your office in the last quarter (nothing is not an acceptable answer)?

We have held (almost) monthly Arts and Sciences days, and held classes at Long and Short of it

Have you served in your capacity as an officer at an event during the last quarter? If so, what did you do and for which event?

I needed help making classes happen for Long and Short, since I would be at Pennsic.

Have you had any challenges or successes?

Success—We have had regular (yet small) attendance at arts and sciences days.

Challenges- attendance and interest has been challenging.

Do you have any concerns or questions?

I have decided to step down as Arts and Sciences minister of Terra Pomaria. I cannot put the energy and time into the position that it deserves.

What can the Summits Officer do to assist you?

Help to advertise Arts and Sciences activities.

What is something you would like to see improved in your area?

More regular arts and sciences gatherings. Perhaps starting up casual A&S activities at Ceilidh would be more attractive for folks.

I don't have much to report as I was not at Long and Short. I think there were classes.

I have been reaching out to Ike box about a Sept or Aug time but having trouble

I am wondering if anyone would be interested in having some A&S during Ceilidh when they restart.

There was an advanced scribal class this last weekend and it went well.

Chronicler – HL Morikawa Kenji
Katashige (8/24-8/26)

The latest editions of the Privy have been sent out to be published.

I will be turning my focus towards the next edition.

Web Minister – Lord Cormac O'caseigh (5/23-5/25)

I've added the May and July editions of The Privy to the website.

I made updates to the Champions, Sergeantry, and Gatherings pages as requested to reflect changes as of The Long and Short of It, as well as the Scribal night returning.

Chatelaine/Castellan – Adele Neuton (1/25-1/27)

Back to classes at the event. They went well and everyone seemed to know where to go.

We have a quote back from the site I want to use for Ceilidh. It looks like the Lions Club is willing to rent their Hall for $25 a month, plus some volunteer work. It sounds like they value volunteer hours more than money, and I'll be meeting with them to find out exactly what they are hoping for. During our initial meeting, they mentioned a need for mowing and light landscape maintenance around the building.

In July, we had the Canterbury Faire demo, and a steadfast team of volunteers worked hard both weekends to maintain a comprehensive demo. They made numerous contacts and handed out hundreds of fliers. It takes a lot of organization, creativity, and dedication to put together a demo like this, year after year, and I'm extremely proud of our demo team. Thank you for that.

In August I helped co-steward the Long and Short of It. Since I had my hands full, I leaned heavily on our demo team and House Ja'lead for help welcoming newcomers at the event. They set up a very visible newcomer-point, offered event walk-throughs for any members of the public who wandered in, and were available throughout the day for anyone who had questions, or just needed a friendly place to land. Additionally, as part of the event, I invited the Chatelaine from Adiantum, HL Aila'ntha of Williams Keep, to do a Newcomer Garb class. She had a full class, and when I talked to her after, she was very happy with how it went.

Otto continues to welcome a steady stream of newcomers and returning folks at Archery Practice. Several of his newer people showed up at Long and Short and were seen joining tournaments, taking classes, and volunteering throughout the weekend.

No injuries

Target Archery Marshal – Master Otto Gottlieb (3/24-26)

Archery, and now thrown weapons practice continues.

We had practice on 8/18, but I seem to have forgot to collect an attendance. If I remember correctly, it was lightly attended.

Practice was cancelled on 8/26. There was a NWS extreme heat advisory issued, so we cancelled to error on the side of caution.

9/2: Archery only - 14

9/9: Archery - 18; Thrown Weapons - 4

Lady Elovel was recently authorized as a senior Thrown Weapons marshal. We expect to have more regular TW practices going forward.

We're planning on holding a Golden Arrow shoot on 9/23. Lady Elovel to host.

Equestrian Marshal – HL Tassi

Last practice was held on 9/6. We had 7 humans in attendance with 7 riders! No unplanned ground testing occurred and fun was had (I was loaned a horse and it was lovely to ride!)

This month I received two inquiries from newcomers via email. One is actually in Coeur du Val, and I've been helping them get in touch with the Shire. The other is out on the coast, in Newport.

The Lions Club Hall is confirmed and we'll have our first Ceilidh October 13th. I have requests for bringing back the gingerbread competition, dancing, and classes. If someone is interested in offering an activity, let me know. I would love to get things scheduled. I've also received a request to make sure regular reminders go out on social media, so I'll be working with our Social Media officer to make sure Ceilidh gets advertised each month.

We have received an invitation to help with the demo Mountain Edge is putting on at the Scottish Highland Games. Any posted the sign-up form to the Terra Pomaria group, as well as an invitation to the next Zoom

Full report is in

Worked well

Early chat with people interested in event to help with planning and coordination. Also good reference during event

Hydration point and Oasis – including delivery service, kept everyone healthy and hydrated

Championships were complete successfully, It was a lot and I am happy it worked

Merchants were able to part of the event while in their booth

Bardic tent and it's location near the fighting field, I personally loved the ambiance it brought to the event

Classes were well attended

Town cry kept everyone on schedule and helped get newcomers involved.

Parking went well

Could be better

Camping attendance was low for the cost and effort but still worth it.

Equestrian is a large expense so for future stewards need to expect this

More parking signs, if possible, move parking closer

Consider making the event into smaller events to break up all the championships

Additional notes in report.

Praise and thanks given to the Event Stewards for the event.

To help ease the pressure of Long and Short

Closing Words

Stefan: I appreciate everyone here, if you are here regularly you are the core of the Barony. This is work and I appreciate you making this work fun.

Anna: Well said. Thank you for everyone.
